

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 9. to Sunday November 13 1693.

Warsaw, Octob. 13.

The last Letters from the Frontiers tell us, That the Forces of the Crown had Orders to separate, and march to their Quarters, and that the Generals were expected in few days at Lemberg, where they are to meet with some other Persons Authorised for that purpose, to regulate divers Matters, with Relation to the Subsistence of the Troops in their Winter-quarters. The Garison of Sorocke on the Nieffer has been lately reinforced and supplied with Provisions; and the like care is taken of our other Frontier Places. They write from Moldavia, That the Han of Tartary was returning home with the Troops with which he marched in the beginning of this Summer to joyn the Ottoman Army in Hungary.

Vienna, Octob. 28. On the 21st instant the Baron de Frise, the Sieur Werther, and the Sieur de Biern, Envoys Extraordinary from the Elector of Saxony, had a publick Audience of the Emperor, and received the Investiture in the Name of his Electoral Highness, with the usual Ceremonies, at which were also present the Ministers of the Dukes of Saxe-Gottha, Zeitz and Weissenfels. The Queen Dowager of Poland, Duchesse of Lorraine, is come hither with the Duke of Lorraine, and the two other Princes her Sons, the fourth and youngest continuing at Inspruck. The Prince de Fursi is on his departure for Rome, where he is to reside with the Character of the Emperors Ambassador, in the place of the Prince of Liechtenstein, who is coming home to be Governor to the young Arch-Duke.

Hamburgh, Octob. 30. The King of Denmark returned to Copenhagen on the 22d of this month. The Fortifications of Ratzburg are almost demolished; And the Danish Troops who were to continue in the Neighbourhood of that place 14 days after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the late Treaty, are now in motion to quit the Country of Saxe-Lawenburg, the Horse having Orders to march to Finland, and the Foot to Embark at Travemunde, and thence to sail by Sea to Copenhagen. The Lunenburg Troops are likewise preparing to leave that Dutchy, and to repass the Elbe, except 400 Men, who, by the said Treaty, are to remain there, to maintain the Possession of it. They write from Stockholme, That on the 27th instant would be performed the Funerall Obsequies of the late Queen of Sweden, with great Pomp; And that on the 28th the States of that Kingdom were to meet in a General Diet.

Edinburgh, Novemb. 4. This being His Majesties Birth Day was observed here with great Solemnity; The Magistrates appeared in their Robes, and having Invited the Lord Chancellor, the Privy Counsellors, and other Persons of Quality in Town, they went to the Cross, and there Drank Their Majesties Healths; The Train-Bands were in Arms, The great Guns were fired from the Castle; and the Evening concluded with Illuminations, and Ringing of Bells; And that which very much added to the publick Rejoycing was the Happy News we received of His Majesties safe arrival in England.

Bristol, Nov. 8. On the 5th arrived here the Providence, Diego Alvarez Master, of and from St. Sebastians; and the Token Sloop laden with Tobacco from Virginia. On the 6th the Industry of Kinsale, Richard Cheseleman Master, with Tobacco and Sugar from Antegoa; and the Reunion of Appledore, with Herrings from Wexford. On the 7th, the Success of Bristol, Thomas Foreman Master, from St. Sebastians; and the Ellen and Mary both from Wexford; and this day the St. John Dogger of Apsam, John Bully Master; and the Boston Pink of Bristol, both laden with Train Oil and Fish from Newfoundland; They came from thence this day month in Company of 7 Sail more, under Convoy of the Experiment Mah of War, who were bound to other Ports.

Tarmonth, Novemb. 8. This Morning Sailed our of this Road 25 Merchant Ships with their Convoy for Holland. About 100 laden Colliers passed this day through our Road to the Southward.

Deale, Novemb. 10. Yesterday arrived in the Downes the Mary Ketch of London, in 9 days from O Porto. The same day came in an Ostend Privateer from Cruising.

London, Nov. 7. The Royal African Company of England having of late years been indelisted in their Trade in the North Parts of Guinny, by the French, as well in time of Peace as since the War, did (by Virtue of Their Majesties Commission) Order their Agent-General, John Booker Esq; at James Island in the River of Gamboa, to attempt the dispossessing them from those Parts, which succeeded accordingly, as appears by Letters from the said Agent of the