19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1915.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Andrew, High Ham, in the County of Somerset, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council, to the effect that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of High Ham, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

HIGH HAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of St. Andrew, High Ham, in the County of Somerset; and in the Churchyard attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say :—

(a) In the family vaults or walled graves now existing in the said Churchyard, and belonging, or reputed to belong, to Mrs. A. M. Barnard, John and James Barnard, and Thomas W. Rowsell, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vaults or graves be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented;

(b) In the family earthen graves now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the following persons, at their decease, namely :—Mrs. Jane Ford, Mrs. Mary Keevil, Mrs. Sophia Lee, Mrs. Ann Lloyd, Mrs. Anna Lloyd, Adam Vile Sherrin, and Miss Tryphena Small, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;

(c) In the said Churchyard, in a reserved grave space in which no interment has taken place within a period of 14 years prior to the date of this Order, the burial may be allowed of the body of Mrs. Alfred Sherrin and of any Member of the Family of the late Edwin Thyer, at their decease, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 17th day of August next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 17th day of August.

Privy Council Office, 13th July, 1915.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of St. John's College, Oxford, on the 2nd day of July, 1915, (and sealed on the 5th day of the same month), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John Baptist College, in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48), in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, on the 2nd day of July, 1915, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty The King in Council:

Whereas Statute XVII of the Statutes of the said College, consisting of nine clauses, deals with the Disposal of Revenue:

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statute shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th Section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do, by this present Instrument under our Seal, alter and amend Statute XVII of the Statutes of the said College by adding, after Clause 9, the following new Clause, viz. :—

"10. As from April 1st, 1914, the College shall repay the income tax on all stipends payable to the President and Fellows on the College Foundation, and also to all persons enjoying pensions under Statute XV., whether such stipends are payable out of Corporate Revenues or from other College Funds, at a rate corresponding in each individual case to the rate chargeable upon the total of the income receivable by the individual from the College as if the income so receivable were his sole income, and as if he had made his claim within the time prescribed in order to obtain relief in respect of earned income. In such repayments no account shall be taken of any abatement to which an individual would be entitled if his income derived from the College were in fact his sole income."

Given under our Common Seal this 5th day of July, 1915.
