

person concerned, they may require his attendance at such place and at such time as they may appoint, and it shall be the duty of every person whose attendance is so required to attend, and to answer such questions as may be addressed to him for the purpose of enabling the forms to be filled up, completed, or corrected.

Right to certificates of registration.

6. After the return by a person of a form filled up and signed, and, where necessary, completed and corrected, in accordance with this Act, there shall be supplied to him a Certificate of Registration which shall be signed and preserved by him.

Notification of changes of address, &c.

7.—(1) If any person registered under this Act changes his place of residence he shall, unless such change is merely temporary, within 28 days thereafter send or deliver to the Local Registration Authority of the District in which the new place of residence is situate, by post or otherwise, his Certificate of Registration with the new place of residence noted thereon, and there shall be supplied to him a fresh Certificate of Registration, and if his new place of residence is in a different District from that in which the previous place of residence is situate, the Local Registration Authority receiving the Certificate shall communicate the change to the Local Registration Authority of the last-mentioned District, and the change shall be noted in the Register.

(2) Within 28 days after the arrival in the Isle of Man of any person between such ages aforesaid, he shall, if not previously registered under this Act, send or deliver to a Local Registration Authority, by post or otherwise, notice of his arrival, together with the particulars concerning himself required by this Act to be registered, and shall, if so required, attend at such place and time as the Authority may appoint, and shall answer such questions as may be addressed to him for the purpose of enabling the necessary particulars to be registered, and thereupon shall be supplied with a Certificate of Registration.

Matters to be prescribed by instructions.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor may issue such instructions as appear to him to be necessary for carrying this Act into effect, and may by such instructions prescribe—

(a) the manner in which the Register is to be compiled, and the nature of the forms to be issued; and

(b) the duties of Registration Authorities, and persons employed by them under this Act; and

(c) anything authorized by this Act to be prescribed.

Expenses.

9.—(1) The expenses of the Registrar-General in carrying this Act into operation, to such an amount as the Lieutenant-Governor may sanction, shall be defrayed out of the General Revenue of the Isle of Man.

(2) There shall be paid out of the General Revenue of the Isle of Man to the Local Registration Authorities towards their expenses under this Act allowances on such scale as the Lieutenant-Governor may approve, and the expenses of Local Registration Authorities under this Act, so far as not covered by such allowances, shall be paid in the case of the Borough of Douglas out of the Borough Fund or Borough Rate, and in the case of any other Local Registration Authority out of the Fund or Rate out of which the general expenses of the Authority are payable.

Use of Rooms by Local Registration Authority.

10. A Local Registration Authority may, for the purposes of this Act, use free of charge any room which may be used for the purposes of taking a poll at an election under the House of Keys Election Acts, subject, however, to the conditions and provisions subject to which it may be so used.

Duty of employers to furnish information.

11. For the purposes of facilitating the compilation and maintenance of the Register, it shall be the duty of any employer of labour (including Heads of Government Departments) to supply to any Registration Authority such information and render such assistance as may be prescribed in respect of such persons in his employment as are required to be registered under this Act.

Registration in one area only.

12. No person shall be registered in more than one Area, and, if any person is liable to be registered in two or more Areas, he shall have liberty to choose in which Area he shall be registered.

Exceptions.

13. The duty of registering under this Act shall not, except to such extent as may be prescribed, apply to any prisoner in a prison, certified lunatic or defective, or inmate of any poor relief institution, hospital, or other prescribed institution, nor to a prisoner of war or a person who is interned.

Penalties for offences.

14.—(1) If any person employed under this Act makes wilful default in the performance of any of his duties under this Act, he shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5 0s. 0d.

(2) If any person engaged in collecting, correcting, or completing forms, or otherwise acting in the compilation or maintenance of the Register, or the tabulation of the contents thereof, or any person using the Register, communicates without lawful authority any information acquired in the course of his employment, or from such use, he shall, on summary conviction be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding 3 months, or to a fine not exceeding £20 0s. 0d., or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(3) If any person over 18 years of age required to register himself under this Act—

(a) refuses, or without lawful excuse neglects, to fill up or cause to be filled up a form to the best of his knowledge and belief, or to sign it as by this Act required; or

(b) refuses, or without lawful excuse neglects, to attend at any place or time at which his attendance is required under this Act; or
