

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Peasemore, Catmere, Uffington with Woolstone, and Baulking, is vested for an estate in fee simple, in possession, in Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon, of Welford Park, in the County of Berks, a Captain in Your Majesty's Army:

"And whereas the said Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Peasemore, Catmere, Uffington with Woolstone, and Baulking, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Charles, now Bishop of Oxford, and his Successors in the same Bishopric:

"And whereas the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefices of Peasemore, Catmere, Uffington with Woolstone, and Baulking, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parishes or Districts in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowsons, so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, respectively arise or exist, that is to say, in the Parishes of Peasemore, Catmere, Uffington with Woolstone, and Baulking:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Peasemore, Catmere, Uffington with Woolstone, and Baulking, now vested in him the said Henry Lindsay Archer Houblon as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, and his Successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Charles, Bishop of Oxford, and his Successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Oxford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of August, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Falstone, in the Civil Parish of Plashet and Tynehead, in the County of Northumberland, of the Parish of Thorpe St. Andrew, in the Civil Parish of Thorpe (next Norwich), in the County of Norfolk, and of the Parish of Heptonstall, in the Civil Parish of Heptonstall, in the West Riding of the County of York, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, made Representations to His Majesty in Council, to the effect that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial grounds in the Civil Parishes of Plashet and Tynehead, Thorpe (next Norwich), and Heptonstall, aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

PLASHET AND TYNEHEAD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of St. Peter, Falstone, in the Civil Parish of Plashet and Tynehead, in the County of Northumberland; and in the Churchyard attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom, or of any member of a family for which, such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave

THORPE (NEXT NORWICH).—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of St. Andrew, Thorpe St. Andrew, in the Civil Parish of Thorpe (next Norwich), in the County of Norfolk; and in the Churchyard attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

In the vault now existing in the said Churchyard, and belonging or reputed to belong to Lieutenant-Colonel John Robert Harvey, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.
