

and otherwise by members of the College. He shall perform such other duties as may be determined from time to time by College Order. He shall be paid an adequate stipend to be determined from time to time by College Order.

3. The accounts of the Steward shall be audited annually by the Auditor or Auditors of the Bursar's accounts. They shall be presented to the Master and Fellows in like manner to those of the Bursar, and be subject to similar approval signified in similar manner.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

The Council.

1. There shall be in the College a Council of which the duty shall be to control the educational business of the College in accordance with the directions hereinafter laid down.

2. The Council shall consist of the Master, the Senior Tutor, and four Fellows of the College, elected annually by the Master and Fellows within fifteen days after the feast of St. Michael, on a day to be previously fixed by College Order.

3. Every vacancy occurring among the elected members of the Council out of the ordinary course shall be filled up by the Master and Fellows as soon as can conveniently be done, and the Council shall not be competent to exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by Statute when its number is incomplete.

4. The Master shall preside at the meetings of the Council, or if he be unable to be present, he shall appoint another member of the Council to act as his Deputy. If neither the Master nor a member of the Council appointed by him to act as his Deputy be present, the members of the Council present shall appoint one of their own number to preside at that meeting.

5. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Council unless at least four members are present.

6. A motion which has been duly proposed and seconded shall be deemed to be carried if four members at least of the Council vote in favour of it. Any motion, duly proposed and seconded and falling within the powers assigned to the Council by Statute, shall be put to the vote by the member of the Council presiding.

7. The Master may summon a meeting of the Council at any time; and he shall, on the written request of any two members of the Council, summon a meeting to be held at a convenient time within seven days after the receipt of such request.

8. The Council shall have power at any meeting of fixing by resolution the time for any future meeting or meetings.

9. On any question as to the tenure of an office by a member of the Council, that member shall be precluded from voting.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

The Tuition Fund.

1. There shall be a Tuition Fund into which shall be paid the Tuition Fees paid by Students of the College and such sums from the revenues of the College as may be determined from time to time by College Order.

2. The Council shall determine from time to time the amount of the Tuition Fees to be paid by Students of the College.

3. The Council shall have the management and control of the Tuition Fund. They shall determine from time to time what payments shall be made out of it in respect of fees for Students of the College attending Lectures or Laboratories or receiving other instruction outside of the College, and what amounts out of the Fund shall be assigned to each of the Tutors and College Lecturers. They shall also determine from time to time what payments shall be made from the Tuition Fund to persons not College Lecturers who are giving instruction to members of the College in accordance with Chapter XL, § 6.

4. The Master and Fellows shall have power on the recommendation of the Council to modify the terms of this and of other Statutes so far as may be necessary in order to organize a combined educational system for this and any other College or Colleges.

5. The accounts of the Tuition Fund shall be audited annually by one or more auditors appointed for the purpose by the Council, who shall be empowered to pay for such audit an adequate remuneration out of the Tuition Fund. The accounts so audited shall be presented to the Master and Fellows.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

The Tutors.

1. There shall be in the College one or more Tutors. It shall be the duty of a Tutor to promote the studies of his pupils, to superintend their conduct, and generally to be to them in loco parentis. One Tutor shall discharge the duties of Praeceptor unless the Master and Fellows appoint some other person to perform the duties of this office.

2. The determination of the number of Tutors from time to time shall rest with the Council. When a Tutor vacates his office, no successor shall be appointed until the Council have decided that the office shall be filled up by a fresh appointment. The Council shall assign to the Tutors, if there be more than one, their several duties, and shall determine which among them shall be Senior Tutor.

3. A Tutor shall be appointed by the Master from amongst the body of the Master and Fellows, but the Master shall appoint himself as Tutor only with the consent of a majority of the existing Fellows.

4. The appointment of a Tutor shall be subject to confirmation by a majority of the Master and existing Fellows, excluding the person concerned, at the end of one year from the date of that appointment. A Tutor whose appointment is not so confirmed shall forthwith vacate his office, and shall not be capable of reappointment except with the consent of a majority of the existing body of Master and Fellows, excluding the person concerned.

5. A Tutor shall vacate his office when he has held it for ten years. He may however be reappointed to his office for a further period of five years by a vote of the Master and Fellows at a College Meeting, provided that a majority of the existing body of Master and Fellows and at least two-thirds of those present at the Meeting concur in such vote. At the end of such period of five years he may under a similar condition be reappointed for a second period of five years, and again for a third such period, after which he shall be no longer eligible for reappointment. If a Tutor be elected Master of the College he shall vacate the office of Tutor at the end of the current academical year unless he be allowed by a vote of the
