

consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 17th day of August, 1915, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said Civil Parish save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said Civil Parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

HIGH HAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of St. Andrew, High Ham, in the County of Somerset; and in the Churchyard attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

(a) In the family vaults or walled graves now existing in the said Churchyard, and belonging, or reputed to belong, to Mrs. A. M. Barnard, John and James Barnard, and Thomas W. Rowsell, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vaults or graves be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented;

(b) In the family earthen graves now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the following persons, at their decease, namely:—Mrs. Jane Ford, Mrs. Mary Keevil, Mrs. Sophia Lee, Mrs. Ann Lloyd, Mrs. Anna Lloyd, Adam Vile Sherrin, and Miss Tryphena Small, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;

(c) In the said Churchyard, in a reserved grave space in which no interment has taken place within a period of 14 years prior to the date of this Order, the burial may be allowed of the body of Mrs. Alfred Sherrin and of any Member of the Family of the late Edwin Thyer, at their decease, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
