

limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, Burials in such City or Town, or within such limits, or in such Burial Grounds or Places of Burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that Notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered: Provided also that no such Representation shall be made in relation to the Burial Ground of any Parish until ten days' previous Notice of the intention to make such Representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of Burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act, (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of Burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 14th day of August, 1879, it was ordered that burials should be discontinued in (amongst other places) Saltley Church, in the County of Warwick; and in the Churchyard, except in existing graves to be used only for the burial of members of the families of those interred in them, and except in new graves to be used only for the burial of Parishioners of Saltley, and of those who may die within the Parish; no coffin to be placed within a foot of any other coffin, or less than 4 feet beneath the surface, unless it be in a walled grave or vault, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the said Parish of Saltley ten days' previous Notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a Representation that they are of opinion that so much of the said Order in Council of the 14th day of August, 1879, as relates to burials in Saltley Church and Churchyard aforesaid, should be varied by substituting for the exceptions and conditions contained in the said Order the exceptions and conditions hereinafter stated:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the 24th day of September, 1915, to give Notice of such Representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 5th day of November, 1915, and that the said Order should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof should be affixed in the manner required by the Burial Act, 1853:

And whereas copies of the said Order have been so affixed accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 14th day of August, 1879, as relates to burials in Saltley Church and Churchyard aforesaid, be varied by substituting for the exceptions and conditions contained in the said Order the following exceptions and conditions:—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, and in which the bodies of not more than 3 persons have been buried at the date of this Order, the burial may be allowed of the body of one member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 4 feet 6 inches below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
