The Local Government Act, 1894.

BOUGHTON GREEN FAIR, NORTHAMPTON.

Whereas a representation has been duly made to the Secretary of State for the Home Department by Captain Richard Granville Hylton Howard-Vyse, D.S.O., the owner of the Fair which has been held annually on the 24th day of June at Boughton Green, Northampton, to the effect that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1871:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1871, do hereby order that the Fair which has been held annually on the 24th day of June at Boughton Green, Northampton, shall be abolished.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 12th day of June, 1916.

Herbert Samuel.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department being satisfied that there is now accommodation at the London County Council Industrial School for Boys at Mayford, near Woking, for two hundred and ten boys, has sanctioned an increase of fifteen in the number of inmates of the said School during the continuance of the present War and for three months thereafter.

The number of inmates at any one-time in the said School, whether sent thereto in pursuance of the provisions of the Children Act, 1908, or of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, or otherwise shall not exceed two hundred and ten boys.

The endorsement on the Certificate sanctioning the increase bears date 8th June, 1916.
