

3289 Pte. J. F. Webster, 2nd Bn., Rif. Bde.

For conspicuous gallantry. During a heavy bombardment by the enemy with trench mortars, Privates Benson and Webster succeeded in digging out three buried men in broad daylight under heavy fire of all kinds.

82966 Spr. J. W. Wilson, 174th Tunnel'g Coy., R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and initiative in rescuing three comrades who had been overcome by the explosions of a mine.

4182 Pte. A. Younge, 1st Bn., I. Gds.

For conspicuous gallantry. When on patrol with an officer a strong enemy patrol was discovered about to rush a post. Private Younge at once opened fire, and then, placing himself 15 yards in front of the post, commenced bombing. By his pluck and determination he dispersed the enemy. He has frequently been noted for his courage.

The undermentioned have been awarded a Clasp to their Distinguished Conduct Medal for subsequent acts of conspicuous gallantry:—

11711 Sjt. N. Hinett, 1st Bn., Notts. & Derby R.

For consistent and conspicuous gallantry during several days of heavy bombardment by the enemy. He worked incessantly, with utter disregard to personal danger, when the enemy were only 30 yards distant. He tended the wounded and rebuilt gaps in the parapet in full view of the enemy.

(The Distinguished Conduct Medal was awarded in Gazette dated 22nd January 1916, page 957.)

2169 Actg. Sjt. C. A. Mattock, 8th Bn., Lond. R., T.F.

For conspicuous gallantry. He commanded a patrol sent on a very risky mission, carried out his orders with great intelligence, and returned with a most valuable report.

(The Distinguished Conduct Medal was awarded in Gazette dated 15th March 1916, page 2891.)

The undermentioned Officers and Warrant Officers have been awarded the Distinguished Service Order and Military Cross respectively, and the specific acts for which the rewards have been granted will be announced as soon as possible in the London Gazette:—
