The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Decoration of the Albert Medal of the First Class to Lance-Corporal George Broadhurst, of the 10th Battalion, South Wales Borderers, who is serving in France, in recognition of his gallantry in saving life:—

On the 10th February, 1916, a member of a class which was being instructed in bombing dropped a live bomb, picked it up again and threw it to a corner of the room. Broadhurst immediately placed his foot on the bomb with a view to minimising the effect of the explosion. He was severely wounded in both feet. By his brave action he undoubtedly safeguarded his comrades.
