

intoxicating liquor in the form of or prepared as (a) medicated wine or (b) any mixture or preparation which contains any drug or medicament or is sold or advertised for sale as containing or purporting to contain medicinal properties except in a bottle or other vessel bearing a label correctly stating in clear and legible words or figures the amount of proof spirit contained in such medicated wine or mixture or preparation. Provided always that nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the sale of—

(a) Any medicine mixture or preparation appearing in the British Pharmacopoeia or the British Pharmaceutical Codex; or

(b) Any medicine mixture or preparation which is made up for a customer on the signed prescription of a medical practitioner; or

(c) Medicated or methylated spirits or spirits made up in medicine and sold by medical practitioners or chemists or druggists.

3. (a) The expression "licensed premises" in the foregoing Article includes any premises or place where the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the premises is carried on under a licence.

(b) This Order does not affect the sale or dispatch of intoxicating liquor to a trader for the purposes of his trade.

(c) In the application of this Order to any area or part of an area in Scotland the Order shall be read as if the expression "exciseable liquor" were substituted for the expression "intoxicating liquor."

Given under the Seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this sixth day of July, 1916.

D'ABERNON,
Chairman.
JOHN PEDDER,
Member of the Board.

(L. S.)

Whereas the Minister of Munitions has made arrangements under Section 20 of the Munitions of War (Amendment) Act, 1916, with the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom whereby the said Lords Commissioners exercise the power of the said Minister under Section 7 of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, of applying the provisions of that Section, as amended by Section 5 of the Munitions of War (Amendment) Act, 1916, to any establishment engaged in the classes of work enumerated in paragraph (c) of sub-section 1 of Section 9 of the Munitions of War (Amendment) Act, 1916.

Now Their Lordships hereby make the following order:—

The provisions of Section 7 of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, as amended by Section 5 of the Munitions of War (Amendment) Act, 1916, (which relate to the prohibition of the employment of persons who have left Munitions work) shall apply to any establishment engaged in the construction, alteration, repair or maintenance of docks and harbours and work in estuaries.

By command,
W. Graham Greene.
