

same with their Episcopal Seals), and with the consent of the Corporation of London (in testimony whereof the same Corporation has caused its Common or Corporate Seal to be affixed to this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Frank Stenton Eardley (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose

“(1) That as from the 25th day of March, in the year 1915, the one-fifth share of the surplus of the net annual rents to be as from that day derived from or in respect of the said messuages or tenements Numbers 51, 52 and 53, Cornhill, which under the provisions of the said Order in Council of the 5th day of March, in the year 1885, is receivable by the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Saint Mark, Clerkenwell, as aforesaid, shall be reduced to a sixth share of the surplus of the said net annual rents, and that as from the same date a sixtieth share of the same surplus of the net annual rents shall be payable to each of the Incumbents of the said Benefices of Saint Oswald, Fulham, and Saint Cyprian, Brockley, and

“(2) That as from the date on which each of the said Benefices of Saint Peter upon Cornhill, Saint Bartholomew, Bethnal Green, Saint Peter, Bethnal Green, and Saint Mark, Victoria Docks, shall next be vacated the one-fifth share of the surplus of the net annual rents to be as from that day derived from or in respect of the said messuages or tenements which under the provisions of the said Order in Council is receivable by the Incumbent of such Benefice shall similarly be reduced to a sixth share of the surplus of the said net annual rents, and the share of the surplus of the same net annual rents receivable by each of the Incumbents of the said Benefices of Saint Oswald, Fulham, and Saint Cyprian, Bröckley, shall be increased by a sixtieth part of the surplus of the same net annual rents.

“Provided always that the provisions made in the said Order in Council of the 5th day of March, in the year 1885, as to the vesting of the said messuages or tenements, and as to the final determination of the actual sum to be divided as aforesaid, and as to the payment and the apportionment of the said rents, shall remain unaffected by anything herein contained except in so far as to make those provisions applicable, and those provisions shall accordingly apply to the new apportionment of the said rents which is herein recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“All which we humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said Dioceses of London, Chelmsford, and Southwark.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of July, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 8th day of June, in the year 1916, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Bodmin, in the County of Cornwall, and in the Diocese of Truro:

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bodmin is vested for an estate in fee simple, in possession, free from incumbrances, in John Athelstan Laurie Riley, Seigneur de la Trinité in the Island of Jersey, of 2, Kensington Court, in the County of London, and Francis Hermitage Day, of The Precinct, Rochester, Esquire, as tenants in common:

“And whereas the said John Athelstan Laurie Riley and Francis Hermitage Day are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bodmin, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the said John Athelstan Laurie Riley, his heirs and assigns, and the Right Reverend Winfrid Oldfield, now Bishop of Truro, and his Successors in the same Bishopric, to hold in equal moieties in manner herein-after appearing:

“And whereas the said Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Truro, and the said John Athelstan
