

lations amending the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, issued by Order of His Majesty in Council dated the 27th day of June, 1916, shall extend to the Isle of Man.

Privy Council Office, 28th July, 1916.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, Oxford, on the 13th day of June, 1916, and sealed on the 13th day of July, 1916, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

Whereas the University of Oxford Commissioners under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, did, by an Instrument under their Seal, dated the 16th day of June, 1881, make certain Statutes thereunto annexed for your Petitioners who are therein described as "the College of All Souls of the Faithful Departed, commonly called All Souls College in the University of Oxford":

And whereas such Statutes were approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council, on the 3rd day of May, 1882, and have since been altered and amended from time to time:

And whereas at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of our said College, specially summoned for that purpose, and held on the 13th day of June, 1916, it was unanimously resolved by those present and voting at the Meeting, that the several further alterations in and additions to the said Statutes hereinafter specified should be made, that is to say:—

In Statute III. (April 1913 Edition).

That Statute III., Clause 1, shall have effect as if the following Sub-Clause had been inserted at the end thereof, that is to say:—

"(3) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this Clause Elections to not more than four of the twenty-one Fellowships therein mentioned may be made, but shall not be required to be made, in each year after the year 1916, and such Elections (if any) shall be made after Examination in such subjects connected with the studies of the University as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time determine."

That this amending Statute shall be in force until there shall be fourteen Fellows of the College who have been elected after Examination, but no longer.

That Statute III., Clause 3, shall have effect as if the following proviso had been inserted at the end thereof, that is to say:—

"Provided that any person shall be eligible to a Fellowship of this class who, under any Statute or Decree of the University, has become entitled to supplicate for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, notwithstanding that he shall not have passed all the Examinations ordinarily required by the University for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts."

That this amending Statute shall be in force until the expiration of four years next after the end of the Emergency Period as defined in the Universities and Colleges (Emergency Powers) Act, 1915, but no longer.

In Statute IV. (April 1913 Edition, as amended by a Statute made by the College on the 13th May, 1913, and approved by Order in Council on the 14th May, 1914).

That a new Clause 6 should be inserted in Statute IV., immediately after Clause 5 of such Statute, and to be in the following words, namely:—

"6. The Warden and Fellows may set apart out of the Revenues of the College appropriated as aforesaid an annual sum not exceeding £1,600 to form a Pension Fund for the payment of pensions to Professors, the whole or any part of the emoluments of whose Chairs is provided out of such Revenues. Any investments now or hereafter representing unexpended balances in any year of the Revenues of the College appropriated as aforesaid may, in addition, if the Warden and Fellows think fit, be carried to the capital of the fund. The formation of the fund and its application shall (subject to the provisions of these Statutes) be regulated by Bye-Laws to be made by the Warden and Fellows, provided as follows:—

(1) No such pension shall be granted, which the income of the Pension Fund shall not, in the judgment of the Warden and Fellows, be sufficient to satisfy.

(2) Every pensioner shall be entitled to payment of his pension in priority to all others whose pensions shall have been subsequently granted.

(3) No such pension shall be payable out of the capital of the Pension Fund, or out of any moneys or property of the College other than the income of the Pension Fund.

(4) The Pension Fund shall be from time to time invested in securities in which Trust Funds may be legally invested, with power for the Warden and Fellows from time to time to vary such securities for others of the like nature, and the income of the Pension Fund shall be applicable to the payment of current pensions.

(5) Any part of the income of the Pension Fund in any year not required for the payment of pensions due in that year shall be invested as part of the capital of the fund, provided that as soon as the fund has increased to such an amount that, in the judgment of the Warden and Fellows, the income arising from the investments comprised therein will be sufficient to meet any pensions authorized by any Bye-Law for the time being in force, such part as aforesaid of the income of the Pension Fund may, if the Warden and Fellows think fit, be applied towards making provision for any of the purposes of these Statutes.

(6) In this Statute the expression 'the income of the Pension Fund' shall include the aforesaid annual payment to the fund from the revenues of the College appropriated as aforesaid.

(7) The Warden and Fellows may, at any time after the University shall have established by Statute of the University, or otherwise, a Scheme of Pensions which shall be applicable to all or any of the Professors to whom this Statute relates, and shall have specified by Statute or Decree the date on which such Scheme shall come into operation, transfer (subject to such conditions, if any, as may be
