BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation, dated the fifth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, We ordered Our Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man to call out the Volunteer Corps of the Isle of Man forthwith for actual military service

AND WHEREAS by section nineteen of the Volunteer Act, 1863, as applied to the Isle of Man, after the Volunteer Corps for the Isle of Man has been called out for actual military service, the Corps shall be released from actual military service only by an order in writing signed by the Governor of the Island or the person for the time being fulfilling the duties of Governor, and addressed and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the Corps, which order the said Governor or other person shall issue upon or as soon as may be after the Proclamation of Us declaring the occasion to have passed and no sooner or otherwise.

AND WHEREAS other arrangements have now been made for the carrying out of the duties performed by the said Volunteer Corps:

Now, THEREFORE, We do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, declare the occasion for the calling out for actual military service of the said Volunteer Corps to have passed, and We do hereby direct Our Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man by order in writing addressed and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the said Corps to release the said Corps from actual military service.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915:
