

maintained his position for thirty-six hours until relieved.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Sidney Arthur William Knights, York & Lanc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. During a raid on the enemy's trenches he showed marked courage and determination in leading his men. He set a splendid example throughout.

Temp. 2nd Lt. John Henry Langdon, Glouc. R. and Mach. Gun C.

For conspicuous bravery and ability during an attack. Though wounded in the arm he stayed with his guns, bringing one of them up unsupported by infantry, thereby breaking up a counter-attack. He remained with his guns until again wounded.

Temp. Capt. James La Fayette Lauder, D.S.O., R.A.M.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He repeatedly with different parties of stretcher bearers searched the forward area under intense fire and brought in many wounded men. He has previously done fine work.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Harry Leighton, M. Gun C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed marked courage and skill in handling his machine guns, which he got forward with the assaulting troops, thereby greatly contributing to the successful holding of the captured trench.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Alexander Henry Tudor Lewis, R. Berks. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of a company of another unit, reorganised bombing sections and successfully dealt with the enemy at a critical time. He set a splendid example.

2nd Lt. Robert Gordon Lindsay, Gord. Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led a daring raid with great courage and skill, killing or wounding eight of the enemy and capturing a prisoner.

Temp. Lt. Walter Robert Low, K.R.R.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. During an enemy attack he showed marked courage and ability and was largely instrumental in driving back the enemy and capturing thirty prisoners.

Lt. Reginald John Lowcock, Notts. & Derby. R. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He beat off an attack by four enemy machines and continued his ranging. Later, he flew under 1,000 feet, in a zone full of our shells, in order to silence hostile batteries.

Capt. Charles Mackay, Leins. R., Spec. Res., and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. In very unfavourable weather he obtained most valuable photographs of the enemy's position. He fought four hostile machines for ten minutes, until assistance arrived and they were driven off; afterwards he continued his work with the artillery.

Temp. Lt. Daniel Mackay, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed marked courage and initiative in removing many wounded men of his battery to the dressing station under heavy fire. Although himself badly shaken he remained at duty.

2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) Francis Alleyne Marr, Cambs. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of and handled his battalion with great courage and ability. He set a splendid example throughout the operations.

Capt. Edward Cuthbert de Renzy Martin, Yorks. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He set a splendid example of courage and ability and was largely instrumental in the success of the operations. Later, he twice patrolled the brigade front and greatly assisted in reorganising the line.

Capt. Thomas Francis Vivian Matthews, Worc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led his company with great courage and skill. Later, he led a small party against a large force of the enemy, dispersed them and captured one officer and twenty-five other ranks.

Capt. Robert Gerald McElney, R.A.M.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led stretcher parties and worked in the open under heavy fire continuously for thirty-four hours. He set a splendid example of courage and determination.

Temp. Capt. Wilfred McFarlane, M.B., R.A.M.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a stretcher party across "No Man's Land" and attended to the wounded. He worked unceasingly throughout the operations under heavy fire, and set a splendid example.

2nd Lt. Ralph Knowles Milne, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. When in command of a working party he carried out his work under heavy fire with great courage and skill. Later, he continued, after his party had been relieved, to supervise the work of the relieving party throughout the night.

2nd Lt. Charles Ronald Muras, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He fought his trench mortar battery under intense fire with great courage and skill, thereby materially assisting the success of a raid on the enemy's trenches.

2nd Lt. George Anthony Murray, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He established and maintained communication