Rome, June 5.

THE Cardinals and Prelates appointed to Examine the Business of Liege have had several Meetings, but are not come to any Resolution thereupon; at least, 'tis not yet made publick; but in the mean time 'tis very confidently said, that the Pope has sent a Brief to the Chapter of Liege, and particularly to such of them as chose the Great Master of the Teutonick Order to be their Bishop, forbidding them to proceed to another Election upon the occasion of his death. The Popes Gallies will Sail the next week for the Levant; And those of Malta are to meet them at Messina.

Milan, June 9. General Caprana, who parted from Turin on the 3d Instant, arrived here the 4th at night in his way to Vienna, being sent for by the Emperor to Command his Army against the Turks; He stayed here two days, and during that time had several Conferences with our Governour the Marquis de Leganez about the Affairs of the Campagne. The German Troops, who have Wintered in the Dutchies of Manius and Parma, are come within the Territories of this State, in their march towards Piedmont, and the Spanish Forces have Orders to begin their march thither in few days.

Venice, June 11. The last Letters from Dalmatia inform us, that the Proveditore General Delfino was drawing his Troops together, and at the same time was making other preparations for some Enterprize, which is thought to be designed against Narenta, a place of good strength in the possession of the Turks, who from thence do greatly annoy the Venetian Territories. General Stein is Embarked in order to his passing to the Morea, where he is to Command the Land Forces of this State; and with the same Convoy will be sent thither 2000 Soldiers, to reinforce the Venetian Army, which, according to our last Advices from thence, consisted of 20000 Men, of which 5000 are Greeks and Albanians, who have been raised this Winter.

Turin, June 12. The Duke of Savoy has ordered all his Cavalry to Encamp near Poncallier, and several Regiments are already arrived there; but the Foot are not to leave their Quarters, till the German Troops, and those of the Milaneze, are come into Piedmont. In the mean time things continue very quiet on our Frontiers. The Ma-rchal de Catinat has been at Pignerol to view that Garison, and is since returned towards Susa; near which place the French have drawn some Troops together; but have not yet begun to form their Army.

Warsaw, June 10. The last Letters from Zolkiew inform us, that the King of Poland has declared his Resolution of returning to this place with the whole Court, to be present at the Ceremony of the Marriage between the Princess's his Daughter, and the Elector of Bavaria, which is to be performed here about the middle of August. The Forces of this Crown have Orders to march into the Field, their Rendezvous being appointed on the Frontiers of Podolia; and in the mean time the Crown General has sent strong Reinforcements to the Troops who are posted about Caminiec, that they may be the better enabled to observe the Enemies Parties, and prevent their receiving any Relief from Moldavia, where the Tartars seem to be very busie again in providing a Convoy for that purpose. The Advices from Lemberg say, that there has been lately some Commotion in the Grinice, which may hinder the march of the Han to Hungary, at least his beginning it time enough to be of any great use to the Turks this Campagne.

Vienna, June 16. They write from Hungary, that several Imperial Regiments were come to the Rendezvous at Baia on the Drave, and that the rest are marching thither with all expedition. The Turks begin to assemble likewise about Belgrade; though the Grand Visier is not expected there till the beginning of July at soonest. But amidst these Preparations for War, there is much talk of setting on foot a Treaty of Peace on the Frontiers of Hungary; And 'tis reported, that Letters are come from Belgrade, expressing the desire of the Turks that Passports may be dispatched from hence for their Ambassadors who are to assist at it. The Letters from Transilvania say, that General Veterani had drawn together the Imperial Forces who have had their Winter Quarters on that side, and 'tis not unlikely but they may make some attempt upon Ginla before the opening of the Campagne.

Cologne, June 25. The Advices from the Upper-Rhine tell us, that the Saxon and Hessien Forces were marching to join the Confederate Army which lay at Sintzheim; The French moved towards the Neckar; and when these Letters came away, were Encamped at Wirselsch.
