The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 30th day of November, in the year 1916, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the Parishes of Grenton, Moorlinch, and Shapwick with Ashcott, in the county of Somerset, now vested in us:

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain Indenture, bearing date the 24th day of June, in the year 1874, and made between Sir George Stucley Stucley, of Hartland Abbey, in the County of Devon, Baronet, and Henry Ley, of Chester Square, within the Liberty of Westminster, Esquire, of the first part, Trehawke Kekewich, of Peamore, in the County of Devon, Esquire, of the second part, Christopher Babbage, and Thomas Henry Boys, both of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerset, Auctioneers, of the third part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, all that the Manor of Grenton, together with the messuages or tenements, farms, lands, and hereditaments, situate in the Parishes of Grenton, Moorlinch, and Shapwick, in the County of Somerset, more particularly described in the Schedule to the said Indenture, and delineated and coloured pink on the Plan attached thereto, became, with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us:

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other Indenture, bearing date the 21st day of November, in the year 1891, and made between Lucy Stawell Crosse, of South Molton, in the County of Devon, Widow, The Reverend Edward Ilbert Crosse, of Henfield, in the County of Sussex, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Reginald Stawell Crosse, and Frederic Day, both of South Molton, in the County of Devon, Solicitors, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, all and singular the messuage or dwelling-house and cottage, with the out-buildings, and gardens, and closes or parcels of land, situate in the Parishes of Grenton, and Ashcott, in the County of Somerset, more particularly described in the first Schedule to the said Indenture, and delineated and coloured pink on the Plan drawn thereon, became, with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us:

"And whereas the said manor lands, tenements, and hereditaments, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund it is expedient that the said manor lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of; and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such manor lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by Instrument or Instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said manor lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest, therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase
