PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914,") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915:

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said regulations:—

1.—(1) The following words shall be added at the end of sub-section (2) of Regulation 2F:—"and any such order may direct that all contracts, or any class of contracts, or any special contract, affected by any provision applied by the order shall remain in force notwithstanding anything in the provision as so applied, but subject to any modifications for which provision may be made by the order."

(2) In Provision No. II. of the provisions appended to Regulation 2F, the following words shall be inserted at the end of the provision:—"and where the order prohibits or restricts the use of the article for any special purpose a person shall not (subject to any conditions contained in the order), if the use of the article is prohibited, use the article for that purpose, or, if the use of the article is restricted, use it except in accordance with the restrictions."

(3) In Provision No. IV. of the provisions appended to Regulation 2F, after the words "the distribution of the article" there shall be inserted the words "or as to the consumption of the article," and the words "distribution or consumption" shall be substituted for the words "or distribution."

2. The following regulation shall be substituted for Regulation 10:—

"10. The competent naval or military authority or the Minister of Munitions may by order—

(2) make such provisions as he thinks necessary for the prevention of the practice of treating in any licensed premises within any area specified in the order.

“Any order of the competent naval or military authority or the Minister of Munitions under this regulation may be made to apply either generally or as respects all or any members of His Majesty’s forces mentioned in the order, and may require copies of the order to be exhibited in a prominent place in any licensed premises affected thereby.”

“If any person contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of an order made under this regulation or any conditions or restrictions imposed thereby, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations, and the competent naval or military authority or the Minister of Munitions may cause such steps to be taken as may be necessary to enforce compliance with the order.

“In this regulation the expression ‘licensed premises’ includes any premises or place where the sale of intoxicating liquor is carried on under a licence.”

3. After Regulation 10b the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“10c. Where it appears to the Admiralty or the Army Council or to the Minister of Munitions that the use of any premises or place (whether licensed for the purpose or not) for public singing, dancing, music, or other public entertainment of the like kind, is prejudicial to the discipline of any members of His Majesty’s forces, or to the production of war material, the Admiralty or Army Council or the Minister of Munitions (as the case may be) may by order require the premises or place to be closed for those purposes, either altogether, or subject to such conditions as to hours and purposes or otherwise as may be specified in the order.

“If the occupier of any such premises or place or any other person contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of an order made under this regulation or any conditions or restrictions imposed thereby, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations, and the competent naval or military authority or the Minister of Munitions may cause such steps to be taken as may be necessary to enforce compliance with the order.”

4. The following regulation shall be inserted after Regulation 35a:—

“35AA. It shall be lawful for the Admiralty or Army Council or the Minister of Munitions, with the concurrence of a Secretary of State, to make and apply to any factory or other premises in or upon which any explosive substance or any substance required for the production thereof is manufactured, treated, produced, stored, or in any way used or handled, rules with a view to securing the health of all or any of the persons managing, or employed or being in or about such premises, and in particular rules requiring any occupier of such premises to provide any form of medical attendance, whether on the premises or otherwise, nourishment, clothing, ventilation, or other sanitary arrangements, or to provide and use or to refrain from using any machinery, appliance, method, or process, and by such rules to impose duties on the persons managing, or employed or being in or about such premises.

“Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any such rule shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.”

5. At the end of proviso (c) to the first paragraph of Regulation 41A after the words “may direct” there shall be inserted the following paragraph:—

6. After Regulation 41A the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“41AA.—(1) Without prejudice to any duty imposed on employers by Regulation 41A, it shall be the duty of every person who in Great Britain takes into his employment any male person who has attained the age of 18 and has not attained the age of 42 in any establishment where munitions work, as defined in section nine of the Munitions of War (Amendment) Act, 1916, is carried on, or in an establishment of any class to which this regulation may be applied by order of the Army Council, to deliver, within twenty-four hours after such person is so taken into employment, to the recruiting officer for the locality in which the premises at which such person is employed, or if such persons are not employed at or about any premises the employer’s premises, are situated, the particulars in writing concerning such man specified in the table annexed to Regulation 41A, and if any person fails to comply with this regulation, or gives any false information in the particulars required to be delivered, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

“(2) It shall be the duty of every person who is taken into employment in any establishment to which this regulation applies, to furnish to his employer, when so required, such information as may be necessary to enable him to deliver the particulars aforesaid, and if he fails to do so, or gives any false information, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.”

7. After Regulation 41b the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“41c.—(1) Regulation 41b shall apply to any country which is for the time being under blockade on the part of the Allies in the same manner as it applies to an enemy country, and to any persons who would be enemies if the country so under blockade were an enemy country in the same manner as it applies to enemies.

“(2) This regulation shall be deemed to have had effect as from the eighth day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen.”

8. After Regulation 42A the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“42B. If any person, without the consent of the Admiralty or Army Council respectively, communicates either directly or indirectly with any member of any of His Majesty’s naval or military forces or with “the commanding or other officer of such member with intent to induce or assist such member to obtain or apply for his release, transfer to the reserve, or discharge, so that he may during the continuance of the war engage in civil employment, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

“Any communication with a member of any of His Majesty’s forces or an officer of such member stating that if such member is released, transferred to the reserve, or discharged, employment can or may be found for him, shall be deemed to have been made with the said intent unless the contrary is proved.

“Nothing in this regulation shall apply to communications with or by a Government department.

“The Admiralty or Army Council may by order grant exemptions from the provisions of this regulation as respects any members or class of members of His Majesty’s naval or military forces respectively.”

9. In subsection (11) of Regulation 56 the words “an aliens officer, or a person authorised by the Government Department concerned” shall be substituted for the words “or an aliens officer”; and the following words shall be inserted at the end of that subsection:—“Where any of these regulations enables any Government Department to apply by order the regulation or any provision contained in or appended to the regulation, or to make rules or orders, the Government Department by whose order the regulation or provision is applied, or by which the rules or orders are made, shall, for the purposes of this provision, as respects offences against the regulation as so applied, or offences by way of contravention or failure to comply with the rules or orders, be the Government Department concerned; and where the administration of any regulation is assigned by the regulation to any special department, that Government Department shall, for the purposes of this provision, as respects offences against that regulation, be the Government Department concerned.”
