

Temp. Sub-Lt. Thomas Edwin Cresswell, R.N.V.R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although severely wounded, he continued to lead his men forward with great courage and determination.

2nd Lt. George Cuttle, Spec. Res., attd. R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and determination in endeavouring to relieve a wounded observation officer under intense fire. He sent back information by lamp signal from time to time, and was on duty continuously for some twenty hours.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Harold Frederick Dann, E. Yorks. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of and handled his company with great courage and skill, setting a splendid example throughout.

Temp. 2nd Lt. William Harrington Hulton Dawson, Manch. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and ability in organising the consolidation and defence of the position won. Later, although wounded, he reported the situation to battalion headquarters.

Lt. (temp. Capt.) John Arthur Gerald de Courcy, R.G.A. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He has located numerous hostile batteries, and by directing the fire of our howitzers has been instrumental in destroying a number of them. On one occasion he drove off three hostile machines.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Herbert Golden Dix, R. W. Kent R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led a flank attack on the enemy with great courage and determination. Later, with another officer, he carried out a daring patrol. He set a splendid example throughout.

Lt. (temp. Capt.) Charles Herbert Dixon, York. L.I., Spec. Res., and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He deliberately made himself a bait for a hostile machine, thereby enabling two of our machines to approach unseen and shoot down the enemy machine. He has carried out many bombing raids with great courage and success.

Temp. Lt. (temp. Capt.) Alexander Watt Donald, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He went forward with a Corporal, and under most intense fire dug out an officer and several men who were entombed.

Temp. Sub-Lt. Albert Edward Dossett, R.N.V.R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although severely wounded, he continued to lead and encourage his men, displaying great courage and determination.

Capt. William Edmonstone Duncan, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. As Liaison Officer he displayed great courage and skill throughout the operations and obtained most valuable information.

Temp. Sub-Lt. Geoffrey Dunn, R.N.V.R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and initiative in extinguishing a fire in an ammunition dump, thereby undoubtedly saving many lives.

Lt. (temp. Capt.) Robert Bruce Ellis, R. Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out a daring reconnaissance under heavy fire, and obtained most valuable information. He was wounded.

Lt. (temp. Maj.) Thomas Smythe Emery, E. Kent R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He, with a private, attacked and held off ten of the enemy, thereby preventing the enemy from entering our line at a vital point. He displayed great courage and initiative throughout.

Lt. John Fattes Falconer, I.A. R. of O., Lrs., attd. M.G. Sqdn.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although severely wounded, he fired a machine gun himself with great courage and skill, thereby materially assisting in repelling an enemy counter-attack.

2nd Lt. David Fallon, Ox. & Bucks. L. Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he carried out a daring reconnaissance, and obtained most valuable information. He set a splendid example throughout.

Lt. Robert Alister Field, York. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and initiative during a bombing attack. Meeting an obstacle in the trench, he went along the parapet under heavy fire, jumped into the trench again, and killed one of the enemy.

2nd Lt. Lawrence Alexander Lewis Fink, Bedf. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led his company forward with great courage and determination under intense fire, and succeeded in capturing about 200 yards of the enemy's trench.

2nd Lt. Gilbert Clare Fitzherbert, York. & Lan. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He, with three men, took a torpedo across "No Man's Land," and successfully fired it under the enemy's wire. He set a fine example of courage and coolness throughout.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Raymond George Fonteyn, R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He, with a small party, successfully laid and fired a torpedo in the enemy's wire. Later, he displayed great courage and determination in rescuing several wounded men under fire.