

made out, and of the prisoners (if any) to be transmitted under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of York, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Spring Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Leeds.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Leeds; for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the County where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoners had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned County.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Spring Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding £20 to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, or the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known Agent on his behalf, shall attend the Spring Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial, but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the County or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Spring Assizes Act, 1879.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Spring Assizes, 1917, and thereafter during the continuance of the Spring Assizes in each succeeding year until further Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of January, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Cowdray.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Sir John Jordan.
Mr. J. W. Gulland.
Mr. Thomas Wiles.
Mr. L. S. Jones.

WHEREAS by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in Bahrein:

And whereas by "The Bahrein Order in Council, 1913," provision was made for the exercise of such jurisdiction:

And whereas by Article 79 (1) of the said Order it was provided that the said Order should come into force on such day within six months of its publication in the "Gazette of India," as the Governor-General of India in Council might, by notification in the said "Gazette," appoint in that behalf:

And whereas the said Order was published in the "Gazette of India" on the 3rd February, 1915:

And whereas by "The Bahrein (Amendment) Order in Council, 1915," the words "one year" were substituted for the words "six months" in Article 79 (1) of the said Bahrein Order in Council, 1913, and it was further provided that it should be lawful for the Secretary of State, by notice given under his hand, to extend the said period of one year for such period, not exceeding twelve months, as might be prescribed in the said notice, and
