

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 16. to Thursday July 19. 1694.

Algiers, June 20.

OUR Dey is marched into the Dominions of Tunis, against Mahomet Beg, with whom he is now in War. About a Month ago a Letter was dispatched to him from the French King; The Subject of it was to let him know, that his Fleet, consisting of 50

Ships of the Line of Battle, 20 Bomb Vessels, and 44 Gallies, was to act this Summer on the Coasts of Catalonia and Italy, with Orders to Bomb all the Maritime Places of Spain that would not compound to save themselves from being burnt, and to exact great Sums of Money from Genoa and Leghorne; and because they might want Provisions, he desired the Dey to supply them with what they should send for from hence; and concluded his Letter with new Offers, to oblige him to break with the English. Since this the Marschal de Tourville sent a small Man of War hither from the Coast of Cassania, with Letters to our Dey; which returned this day. Two Months ago 2 Fishing Privateers took and carried into Alexandria, a Merchant Ship of this place, bound hither from Alexandria, estimated to be worth in Goods and Passengers above a Million of Pieces of Eight.

Rome, June 26. The Business about the Election of Lige meets with great delays here, the Congregation of Cardinals and Prelates who are appointed by the Pope to examine this Matter, not being to meet till the 12th of the next month. The Popes Gallies are sailed from Croisa Vecchia to join the Venetian Fleet in the Levant.

Genoa, June 28. On the 24th arrived here from Naples 7 Gallies commanded by the Duke of Tursis, having in their Company 4 Vessels laden with Bombs and Ammunition, and 3 laden with Salt, all bound to Final; Whither they continued their Voyage the same day; These Gallies returned hither on the 26th; and will Sail again in 2 or 3 days for the Coast of Spain.

Turin, July 1. The Marquis de Leganez, Governor General of Milan, is come hither, to Confer with the Duke of Savoy, and the General Officers of the Imperial Forces, about the Affairs of the Campagne. The Spanish Troops are on their march towards Piedmont. The Imperial Forces are come to Orbassan, except those that were quartered in Monferrat, who still continue there. The Troops of his Royal Highness assemble at Candiale. The Marschal de Catinas continues to intrench his Camp near Fenestrelle.

Milan, July 7. The Forces of this State are marched to Piedmont, making together about 10000 Men. General Palfi parted hence last Monday for Turin. Great quantities of Ammunition and Provisions are sent from hence to Final. We have Advice of the death of Cardinal Cicero Bishop of Como, by which a Twelfth Place is become vacant in the Colledge of Cardinals.

Turin, July 9. The German Troops are marched this day from Orbassan; and those of his Royal Highness from Candiale; and they are to encamp together between Orbassan and Marsaglia. The Spanish Forces arrived yesterday within a mile of this place; and are since marched to Millesiori; From whence they will in a day or two move nearer to Pignoral. A Detachment is made of 2000 Spanish and German Foot, and 500 Horse, under the Command of Major General Geswin, to block up Casal. The Marquis de Leganez is returned to Milan, but will be here again on the 11th or 12th of this month. The Duke of Savoy's Equipage went hence this day to the Camp; Whither his Royal Highness will be going himself in few days. The German Troops are marching this way from Monferrat.

Venice, July 3. The Senate has received Advice from Dalmatia, that Cicuta on the River Narenta is surrendered to the Proveditore General Delfino, the Turkish Garrison, to the number of 500 Men, marching out with their Arms and Baggage; The taking of this place (for which Te Deum has been Sung in all the Churches of this City) is the more considerable, because it is a Pass into Bosnia, and into the County of Arcegovina.

Vienna, July 10. The Velt-Marschal Caprara is still here, but will set out in a day or two for Hungary; From whence we have Advice by our last Letters, that the Imperial Forces, which drew together at Baya, were marched higher up towards Peter-Waradin, near which place they delighted to form a Camp. The Report we had lately, that a Body of 6000 Turks had passed the Sava, and pitched themselves near Semlin, proves a mistake. Some of their Troops are Encamped near Belgrade; but we have yet no certain Advice when the Vilier is expected there. General Veterani is drawing together the Imperial Forces in Transylvania, and will march with part of them towards the Iron-Gate to secure that Pass.

Hailbron, July 10. Prince Lewis of Baden is at present Encamped near Hockenheim, from whence the Army reaches within two Leagues of Philipsbourg: We are assured that he will pass the Rhine so soon as the rest of the Saxon and Brandenburg Forces have joined him. The French Army lies on the other side the Rhine near Oppenheim, and have begun to intrench themselves; 'Tis said the Marschal de Luige has Orders to send a Detachment to Flanders, and another to Piedmont; and to be himself upon the Defensive during the remaining part of the Campagne.

From the Confederate Army under the Command of Prince Lewis of Baden near Hockenheim, July 14. We decamped the 10th from Swetzingen, and came to this place, which is between Hydelberg and Philipsburg. The 11th Prince Lewis went out with a strong Party of Horse to Manheim, to give the necessary Orders about laying a Bridge there over the Rhine. The French Army lies on the other side of that River between Oppenheim and Worms; They have not yet made any Detachment for Flanders or Piedmont.

Frankfort, July 18. The Army of the Allies is Encamped at Hockenheim, within two Leagues of Philipsburg. The rest of the Saxon Forces that are to serve on the Upper-Rhine this Summer arrived the 16th of this month at Vacha, 3 miles from Fulda; when they have joined Prince Lewis, it's believed he will pass the Rhine; and there is a Discourse as if he would undertake some Siege. The French Army lies still near Oppenheim, and have cast up some Intrenchments along the River side; Their Men continue to desert in great numbers.

Cologne, July 20. The Bishop of Breslaw, Brother to the Elector Palatin, was on the 12th Instant chosen Great Master of the Teutonic Order, and was invested with that Dignity in the Cathedral Church at Mergenthal with the usual Ceremonies.

Paris, July 19. The Letters from Catalonia inform us, that the French Army, commanded by the Duke de Noailles, was separated and gone into their Summer Quarters. 'Twas generally expected they would have besieged Barcelona, which seem'd to be the principal design of this Campagne, all things being provided to attack it by Sea and Land; but the news of the English Fleet's being gone to the Streights altered these Measures, and thereupon the Marschal de Tourville instead of Sailing to Barcelona, according to his first Orders, was directed to return with all the haste he could to Toulon. By Letters of the 10th of this month from Perpignan, we have Advice, (which is confirmed by those