

block, and by his great courage and fine example to the men under him, although very short of bombs, checked an enemy counter-attack.

Rev. Walter Hawksworth Fawkes, temp. Chapl. to the Forces, 4th Class, A. Chapl. Dept.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and determination in rescuing several wounded men under very heavy fire.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Morris Glanville Fielding, Oxf. and Bucks. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of his company and organised the left flank defence, worked untiringly, and sent in most valuable information. He set a splendid example of courage and coolness throughout.

Capt. Arthur George Fisher, M.B., R.A.M.C., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He went forward to the front line under very heavy fire to locate some wounded men whom he later succeeded in rescuing. He has previously done fine work.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Walter Howard Flear, Dorset. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although himself wounded he succeeded in rescuing another wounded officer and in crossing 150 yards of open ground under heavy fire with a water carrying party.

Temp. Capt. Lionel Arthur Fletcher Foers, York and Lanc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. After a bomb had exploded in the middle of the raiding party, causing several casualties, he, with great presence of mind, quickly rallied his men and successfully bombed an enemy dug-out. Later, he rescued a wounded officer.

Capt. Robert Francis Thornhagh Foljambe, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and determination when his battery was subjected to heavy fire, restoring confidence and assisting the wounded. He has previously done fine work.

Temp. Lt. Roy Gonselves Glenday, K.A.R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. With four men he made a very gallant attempt to capture an enemy machine-gun under intense fire. He was wounded.

Capt. Guy Edward Augustus Granet, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out daring reconnaissances of the enemy defences and personally ranged his battery from advanced and exposed observation posts with good effect. Later, he was instrumental in breaking up strong enemy counter-attacks.

Capt. Dudley Dalswinton Haskard, R.G.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He went at great personal risk into the firing line, located an enemy machine-gun, brought up a gun, and knocked out the enemy machine-gun and silenced two others. He set a splendid example throughout.

2nd Lt. Alfred William Hawes, H.A.C.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of and handled his company in the attack with marked courage and ability. He set a fine example to his men.

2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Nicholas Weatherby Hill, Oxf. and Bucks. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of and handled his company in the attack with marked courage and ability. Later, although wounded, he continued to encourage his men.

Temp. Capt. Samuel John Markham Hole, R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led a mixed force in the advance with great gallantry. Later, he maintained his position for two days in the most advanced line and sent back most valuable information.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Arnold Charles Hone, Essex R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He formed a defensive flank with the few troops at his disposal and held on to the position for two days until relieved. He set a splendid example throughout.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Charles Robert Horan, R. Muns. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out several daring reconnaissances under heavy fire and obtained most valuable information. Later, he captured an enemy machine-gun and assisted in rescuing a wounded officer.

Temp. Capt. Albert Alexander Pargiter Humfrey, R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed marked courage and initiative when in command of two companies and rendered most valuable assistance to another unit. He set a splendid example throughout.

2nd Lt. Claude Raynes Winkworth Jenkins, R. Fus., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out a daring reconnaissance and entered an enemy trench alone, capturing two prisoners. He has on many occasions displayed great courage and skill and has obtained most valuable information.

Capt. Alexander Nairne Kerr, I.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assisted to organise and led an attack against the enemy, displaying great courage and determination. He has rendered most valuable services throughout.

Temp. 2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) Joseph Albert Knowles, Ches. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out several daring patrols and ob-