

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of February, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 25th day of January, in the year 1917, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of All Saints, Brighton, situate in the Parish of Brighton, in the County of Sussex, and in the Diocese of Chichester:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of All Saints, Brighton, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of Brighton, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of All Saints, Brighton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Brighton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of All Saints, Brighton, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same Church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Brighton, being:—

"All that part of the Parish of Brighton, in the County of Sussex, and in the Diocese of Chichester, which is bounded upon the north by the New Parish of Saint Luke, Prestonville, upon the north-west by the New Parish of Saint Patrick, Hove, upon part of the south-west by the District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Brighton, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-west, upon the south, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Brighton, from the said Parish of Brighton, at the junction of the roads called Windlesham Avenue, Vernon Terrace, and Clifton Hill, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Clifton Hill for a distance of 5½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Powis Road upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Brighton from the New Parish of Saint Nicholas, Brighton, in the said County and Diocese, and extending thence first south-eastward, then north-eastward, then again south-eastward, then eastward, then southward, then again eastward, and then northward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of Clifton Hill, Clifton Road, Dyke Road, West Hill Road, Buckingham Road, Gloucester Road, and Queen's Road) for a distance of 45 chains or thereabouts to the junction (at the entrance of the Brighton Railway Station) of Queen's Road with Guildford Road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Guildford Road for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Terminus Road, and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of Terminus Road for a distance of 11 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roads called Buckingham Place and Howard Place, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Howard Place for a distance of 14 chains or thereabouts to its junction with New England Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of New England Road for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to the western side of the viaduct which carries the main line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway across New England Road and Old Shoreham Road, and extending thence northward along the western side of the said viaduct for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to a point near the northern side of Old Shoreham Road upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Brighton from the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Prestonville."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.
