

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 26. to Sunday July 30 1694.

Rome, July 10.

The Abbe Scarlatti, who resides here on the part of the Elector of Baravia, had Audience of the Pope on Monday last, the occasion of which was to notify the Marriage concluded between his Electoral Highness of Baravia, and the Princess of Poland; Tho' he likewise made use of that opportunity to sollicite the dispatch of the matter about the late Election at Lige. The Congregation of Cardinals and Prelats, appointed for the Examination of it, were to have met the 15th of this month; but upon the representation of the Persons that are employed here on behalf of the Cardinal de Bouillon, that they could not be ready by that time, a respite is allowed them till the 20th, but with a positive Order, that the said Congregation shall then meet, and determine this Affair. We have Advice, That the Pope Gallies have joyned with the Squadron of Malta, and that they are proceeded together for the Levant.

Genoa, July 4. On Monday last parted from hence 7 Spanish Gallies, Commanded by the Duke of Turisti, for the Coast of Spain. where they are to joyn with the Gallies of Sardinia and Sicily, of whose arrival at Port Mahon they had advice before they left this Port. Signior Salvago who was lately sent to Milan to accommodate some differences arisen between the Spaniards and this State, is not yet come back; but in the mean time two Barks belonging to Final, which were stopt here by way of Reprizal, have been discharged; and the like has been done at Final to 5 Genouese Barks which were under Arrest there by Order of the Governor of Milan; From whence we conclude, that the matters in dispute are in a fair way to be amicably adjusted.

Milan, July 14. We hear that a Regiment of 1000 Hussars is arrived at Como, in their march towards Piacenza. The Troops that are to be employed in the Blockade of Casal are marching thither.

Venice, July 16. Since the departure of the last great Convoy, several new raised Troops are come to the Lido; who were mustered there some days ago, and are to go with the next Ships to the Mores, except 600 Men, who are ordered to Dalmatia. The last Letters from Spalero say, That the Provencere General Delfino was returned thither, after the taking of Gocher; and that he was preparing for some new Enterprize, for which a fair opportunity seems to be offered by the Turks having weakened all their Garrisons on that side, to reinforce their Army in Hungary. The Advices from Turkey by the way of Ragusa say, That the new Grand Visier set out from Astracane about the end of May, in order to joyn the Osman Forces, who were to Rendezvous near Sofia.

Turin, July 17. The Duke of Savoy's Forces, with part of the Germans, encamped the 12th at Astracane, about 2 Leagues from Pignerol; where they expect to be joyned by the Spanish, and the rest of the Imperial Troops, (who were by our last advice not far from them) and then our Army will be compleat. The French have sent a Detachment of 12 Battalions towards Provence, where they are mightily alarmed by the advice of the English Fleets being come into the Straites. The Vaudois have within these 2 or 3 months taken from the French 700 Horses and Mules.

Vizna, July 17. The Count de Hoyersheim intends to go hence on Tuesday next to the Army in Hungary, and General Caprera a day or two after. In the mean time the Imperial Forces lie encamped in 3 Bodies near the Drava and the Danube, for their more convenient Subsistence. We hear that the Turks have put a great Convoy of Provisions into Temeswar; That they have laid a Bridge over the Sava; and another over the Danube near Semendria; and that the Grand Visier is expected at Belgrade about the end of this month. The last Letters from Transilvania tell us, That things continued very quiet on that Frontier, and that they did not yet hear of the march of the Tatars, who 'twas expected would be going about this time to joyn the Turks in Hungary; However, General Peterani, to secure that Country against any sudden Invasion, had taken care to place sufficient Guards upon all the Passes and Avenues to it.

Francfort, July 18. The Confederate Army under the Command of Prince Lewis of Baden, continues encamped at Hockenheim, between Hydelberg and Philipburg; 'Tis believed their next march will be to Manheim. where a Bridge is going to be laid over the Rhine, in order to their passing that River. A great number of Boors is Summoned in to work on the Fortifications of Manheim, which they hope to have perfected in a short time, so as to be fit to receive a Garison. The Marschal de Lorge lies still with the French Army about Alzheim. We do not hear that he has yet sent any Detachment towards Flanders.

Hamburg, July 25. The Letters from Stockholme inform us, That the King of Sweden had taken a progress into Lapland the most Northerly Part of his Dominions; which he began the 14th of the last month; That he had visited the Cities of Uma and Pitka, and was gone from thence to Torne, situated in the bottom of the Gulf of Botnia, where they have no night, during the Months of May, June, July, and August; and that his Majesty purposed to return to Stockholme about the 20th of this month. They write from Berlin, That the Elector of Brandenburg was going to Crossen to take a Review of his Troops, which he finds to reinforce those he has already in the Emperor's Service in Hungary. The Princess of Polonia is expected here in the beginning of September, in her Journey to Flaviers, and in the mean time one of the best Houses in this City is making ready for her Reception.

London, July 27.