Leghorn, July 19.

Some Persons arrived here yesterday from Toulon, having left that place 12 days ago; who say that when they came away the French were hauling several of their biggest Ships within the Castles. The last week sailed hence a French Ship for Scandarone, and another for Tunis.

Turin, July 23. The Duke of Savoy continues encamped with his own and the Imperial Troops between Atrasque and Scalengue; The Spaniards lie near Villa-Franca on the Po. Yesterday went hence about 50 Wagons laden with Provisions and Ammunition, and several Pieces of Cannon to our Camp; where his Royal Highness took the same day a Review of the Army. The French have sent a Reinforcement of several Battalions to St. Brigide and Pignacol; and the Marechal de Carinat came thither himself the last week to view that Garison, after which he returned to his Camp at Rebecotel. Casal is block'd up by 2500 Foot and 1000 Horse.

Venice, July 23. By a Felucca, who came in 6 days from Spalato, we have Advice that the Bassa's of Albania and Arcegovina had drawn together a Body of 7 or 8000 Men, and were marching with them towards Ciclut, to endeavour the regaining of that Fortrefs; but that the Proveditore General Delfino had so well provided it with all things necessary for its defence, and had besides taken such care to secure the Passes round it, that the place seemed to be sufficiently secured against any attempt of the Enemies. The Popes Gallies with those of Malta arrived at Corfou on the 8th Instant, and parted from thence on the 10th to join the Venetian Fleet in the Levant. We hear that there has been a great Earthquake at Negrepont.

Vienna, July 24. General Caprara is now on his departure for Hungary; Where the Imperial Forces are in the mean time moving towards Peter-Waradin, in order to form a Camp near that place. The Turks have put a great Convoy of Provisions into Temeswar, but the Troops that guarded it, to the number of 7 or 8000 Men, were in their coming back attack'd by a Body of Radziens under the Command of Colonel Anthony, who having possess'd themselves of a Pass by which the Enemy were to return, fell upon them with such advantage, that above 1000 of the Turks were killed upon the spot, and many taken Prisoners; The rest fled to Belgrade. The Advices from Turkey say, that the new Grand Visier went from Adrianople on the 10th of the last month to his Tent near that place, giving out that he would in few days begin his march towards Hungary, although he had not then with him above 5000 Soldiers, but that he had afterwards put off his departure till the 28th of the same month; dil-patching in the mean time Orders to the Bassa's that were to join him, to hasten their march, and to assemble all the Troops they possibly could; But notwithstanding all their endeavours to augment their Forces, we are assured that their Army will not be by much so numerous this year as it was the last. The Letters from Constantinople of the 23d past tell us, that the Ceriffe or King of Mecca, with the Arabians of those parts, had revolted against the Ottoman Government, and had killed all the Turks at Mecca and Medina, and possessed themselves of Mahomet's Sepulchre, and of all the Treasure of those two places; and that Orders had been thereupon sent to the Bassa of Damascus to draw together all the Turkish Forces from that and the Neighbouring Provinces, and to march against the Arabians; who 'tis believed are countenanced under-hand by the Persians. These Letters from Turkey add, that the Grand Signior was very ill of a Droisie.

From the Confederate Army under the Command of Prince Lewis of Baden at Hockenheim, July 30. The Resolution being finally taken to fortifie Mannheim, the Engineers were sent thither on the 25th Instant with a Detachment from the Army to begin that Work. Prince Lewis with most of the General Officers went the 26th to view the place, and commanded the Count de Furstenberg, with 500 Men, to post himself in a little Island called Milan. The same day 37 Deserters, most of them Irish, came over to us, and desired to go and serve in Hungary; There were among them a Captain and 3 Lieutenants; and the next day they, together with divers other Deserters, were sent by Water towards Vienna. The 27th Major General Spillenbergh was detached with 13 Battalions to Mannheim, to cover our Workmen; and the Duke of Wirtemberg went out with 2000 Foot, 2000 Horse, and 8 Field Pieces, to protect our Foragers, who went almost under the Cannon of Philipsburg. The 28th we received Advice that a Party of Hussars belonging to the Garison of Mentz, had defeated a Convoy of Provisions that was going to the French Army, and had brought back a Booty of 40 Horses and Mules. Yesterday came in some Deserters who reported that the French Army was going to decamp; which is confirmed this day, and that they march towards Landau.

Frankfort, Aug. 1. The Army of the Allies remains still at Hockenheim; but a strong Detachment is sent to cover the new Fortifications that are making at Mannheim; toward which the Circles of Franconia and the Upper-Rhine have resolved to contribute a Sum of Money, and several thousand Pioneers. We have Advice that the Marechal de Lorge marches towards Landau; Though some think he is only changing his Camp.

Paris, Aug. 2. Here arrive nequent Expresses from the Coast of Normandy to inform the Court of the Motions of the English and Dutch Fleet; Which, after having wholly destroyed Diep, came the 25th of the last month before Havre.

Harve de Grace, and began the 26th in the afternoon to bombard the Town, and by the next morning had burnt great part of it; The Inhabitants fled from thence with their best Goods in great confusion; and the like they did from St. Vallery and other Maritime Places thereabouts, the alarm being spread all along the Coast. The Marschal de Chosneul, who Commands in those parts, drew the Troops and Militia together to detend them against a Descent, and did all he could to encourage and quiet the People, but he could not remove their fears, nor silence their murmurings, to see their Coasts thus exposed, and the Country put to so much trouble and expence, by being obliged to be continually in Arms, especially at a time when the Season calls for them to be looking after their Harvest. They write from Toulon the 20th, that the Marschal de Tourville had sent out several small Frigats to gain intelligence of the Enemies Fleet, one of which returned the day before, but without any news of them. The Letters from Girone tell us, that the Marschal de Navilles had taken upon him the Title of Viceroy of Catalonia, and had been received in that Quality by the Clergy and Magistrates of Girone, who had taken an Oath of Fidelity to the French King, and the Marschal had sworn to maintain their Privileges.

Brussels, Aug. 4. On the 31st past one of our Parties defeated a French Party near Charleroy, and brought hither 60 Prisoners. And yesterday we received Advice that part of the Garrison of Aeth, with a Detachment of Horse from our flying Camp in Flanders, had forced the French Lines between Conde and St. Guislain, killing several of the French that guarded them, and taking the rest Prisoners, after which they advanced into the Neighbourhood of Quessnoy and Valenciennes, where they put the Country under Contribution, and brought back with them divers Hostages for the payment thereof, together with a Booty of 300 Sheep, 200 Cows, and 150 Horses. Some of our Troops beat yesterday one of the Enemies Parties, and took several Prisoners.

From the King's Camp at Bonmale, August 5. On the first of this month we made a great Forage towards the Enemy; and several of our Foragers went without any disturbance near their Camp; His Majesty was abroad all the while with the Forage Guards. We have Advice that the Count de Thian, commanding the Forces in Flanders, has passed the French Lines, taken a considerable Booty from the Enemy of all sorts of Cattle, and is now at St. Guislain raising Contributions. They write from Liege, that the Enemy Foraging that way, some of the Garrison had fallen upon them, killed near a hundred Men, and had taken as many Horses, with several Prisoners. The two Armies continue in the same Camps you had an account of in our last; The French are Entrenching theirs. On Tuesday the Baron de Hickeren, late Envoy from the States-General to the Northern Crowns, came hither to wait upon His Majesty.

Hague, Aug. 6. N. S. The Letters from Flanders give an account, that a Detachment of 1200 Spanish Foot, and 300 Horse, commanded by the Count de Thian, marched on Friday night last from Aeth, and having forced two Redoubts the Enemy had upon the River Hayne, they advanced to St. Guislain, the French that were posted there, retiring upon the approach of our Men, to Mons; after this the Count de Thian sent out several Parties, who put the Country almost as far as Valenciennes under Contribution, and brought back a considerable Booty of Cattle. The Deputies of the several Colledges of the Admiralty, who have been in Conference with the Deputies of the States Provincial, are gone home again, having adjusted the Matters they came hither about.

Dublin, July 27. We had an Account yesterday from London-Derry, that the Scarbo'ugh, a Fifth Rate Frigate, was on the 15th Instant attack'd by two French Privateers, one of 40, and the other of 26 Guns, and taken by them, after the Commander was killed, with about 30 of his Men. The Privateers put the rest of the Men ashore near Derry. A small Privateer of 6 Guns took the last week the Grace, a Gally who was coming hither with 3 Mails from England.
