TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT IN AGRICULTURE ORDER, 1917.

THE NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE (TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT IN AGRICULTURE) ORDER, 1917, DATED 14TH MARCH, 1917, MADE BY THE NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE JOINT COMMITTEE, ACTING JOINTLY WITH THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONERS, UNDER SECTION 1 OF THE NATIONAL INSURANCE (TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT IN AGRICULTURE) ACT, 1916 (6 & 7 GEO. V., c. 53).

Whereas by Section 1 of the National Insurance (Temporary Employment in Agriculture) Act, 1916, it is provided that there shall be added to the classes of persons, employment of whom may be excepted from the provisions of Part I. of the National Insurance Act, 1911, by special Order made under paragraph (i) of Part II. of the First Schedule to that Act, persons who, not being persons whose normal occupation is employment within the meaning of that Act, are temporarily employed on or about any agricultural holding in consequence of the loss of men through enlistment, or transference to Government service, or other circumstances arising out of the present war, and that the exemption conferred by such special Order shall be subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified therein;

Now therefore the National Health Insurance Joint Committee, acting jointly with the Insurance Commissioners, in virtue of the powers conferred on them by the said Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Temporary Employment in Agriculture) Order, 1917.

(2) In this Order "the Commissioners" means the Insurance Commissioners, and "the Act" means the National Insurance Act, 1911.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. Where any person who, not being a person whose normal occupation is employment within the meaning of Part I. of the Act, is temporarily employed on or about any agricultural holding in consequence of the loss of men through enlistment, or transference to Government service, or other circumstances arising out of the present war, such temporary employment shall be deemed not to be employment within the meaning of Part I. of the Act, if the person has made application to the Commissioners in the manner hereinafter provided for a certificate of exclusion and the Commissioners have granted such certificate.

3.—(1) An application for a certificate of exclusion shall be in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Order, or in such other form substantially to the like effect as the Commissioners may determine, and shall be addressed to the Commissioners either directly or through such officer or person as the Commissioners may appoint for the purpose.

(2) A certificate of exclusion shall be in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Order or in such other form substantially to the like effect as the Commissioners may determine, and shall be valid for such period, not exceeding the period during which this Order remains in force, as may be specified in the certificate, provided that—

(a) if during the currency of the certificate the circumstances of the person to whom it has been issued alter in such a way as to disentitle him thereto, the certificate shall thereupon become void; and

(b) if at any time the person to whom a certificate has been issued gives notice to the Commissioners that he desires the certificate to be cancelled, the Commissioners shall cancel the certificate accordingly as from such date as they shall determine.

(3) A certificate of exclusion may be renewed by the Commissioners on application by the holder thereof at any time before the expiration of the period during which it is in force, on proof to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the holder continues to be entitled thereto.

4. Every person making application for a certificate of exclusion shall make a full disclosure of all facts on which he relies in support of his application, and shall furnish such further evidence in relation thereto, by statutory declaration or otherwise, as the Commissioners may require.

5. The Commissioners shall issue to every person to whom a certificate of exclusion is granted an exclusion book containing a copy of the certificate of exclusion, and such person shall, as soon as may be after the receipt thereof, and after entering on any agricultural employment, produce it to his employer, and shall also produce it at such other times as may be reasonably required by his employer or by any officer appointed under the Act, or duly authorised to act in the execution of the Act.

6. This Order shall not apply to any person having a right to exemption under the provisions of subsection (3) of Section 81 of the Act, which relates to Irish migratory labourers.

7. This Order shall remain in force during the present war and for the period of six months from the end thereof.
