

was largely due to his energy and resource that the forces in the field were able to receive supplies, without which the success of the operations would have been impossible.

(The names marked with an asterisk appeared in the London Gazette dated 17th March, 1917, without deeds.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award a Second Bar to the Military Cross to the undermentioned Officer:—

Capt. Richard William Oldfield, M.C., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and initiative in organising parties of men to clear away tarpaulins which had caught fire on various ammunition dumps. He undoubtedly saved a large quantity of heavy ammunition from destruction.

(M.C. Gazetted 18th Feb. 1915.)
(1st Bar Gazetted 14th Nov. 1916.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award a Bar to the Military Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Lt. (Actg. Capt.) Henry Wyndham Francis Blackburne Farrer, M.C., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when a gun team became casualties. He went to the gun and rendered assistance to the wounded under very heavy fire. He has at all times set a splendid example of courage and determination.

(M.C. Gazetted 23rd June 1915.)

2nd Lt. Thomas Gronow, M.C., Bord. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in leading an attack against a village. Although his clothing was twice pierced by machine gun fire, he himself drove back an enemy machine gun team which was holding up the advance.

(M.C. Gazetted 3rd Mar. 1917.)

2nd Lt. Leslie George Hartmann, M.C., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He successfully guided a patrol to its objective and established an observation post in close proximity to the enemy. He set a fine example of coolness and courage throughout. He was severely wounded.

(M.C. Gazetted 1st Jan. 1917.)

Temp. Lt. Cyril Dudeney Hayfield, M.C., E. Kent R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when acting as Battalion Intelligence Officer. On several occasions he carried out reconnaissances under very heavy fire and obtained most valuable information.

(M.C. Gazetted 25th Nov. 1916.)

Temp. Capt. Albert Alexander Pargiter Humfrey, M.C., R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He successfully consolidated a dangerous flank under very heavy hostile fire. He showed great powers of organisation and leadership throughout the operations.

(M.C. Gazetted 13th Feb. 1917.)

Temp. Capt. Ernest Emrys Isaac, M.C., R.A.M.C., attd. R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He worked continuously under very heavy fire and was responsible for the successful evacuation of the wounded. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout the operations.

(M.C. Gazetted 20th Oct. 1916.)

2nd Lt. Percy Keevill, M.C., K. R. Rif. C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He reorganised his men, together with those of other units, and formed bombing posts at a critical time. He personally repulsed several enemy bombing attacks and set a splendid example to his men throughout the operations.

(M.C. Gazetted 25th Nov. 1916.)

Temp. Capt. Patrick Joseph Lane, M.C., M.B., R.A.M.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On several occasions he led out squads of stretcher bearers under very heavy fire and succeeded in bringing in many wounded men. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout.

(M.C. Gazetted 25th Nov. 1916.)

Lt. (Temp. Capt.) Norman Allen Lewis, M.C., R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He carried out a most valuable reconnaissance under very heavy fire. Later, he showed marked courage and resource in consolidating the line under the most trying conditions.

(M.C. Gazetted 13th Feb. 1917.)

Lt. (Actg. Capt.) Herbert Athelstan Maynard, M.C., Midd'x R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of a daylight raiding party. He handled his men with marked ability, inflicted many casualties on the enemy and captured twenty-five prisoners. He set a splendid example to his men.

(M.C. Gazetted 26th Sept. 1916.)

Lt. Bruce Samuel Kirkman Guise Moores, R.G.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and initiative in digging out, under heavy fire, a man who had been buried. He has at all times set a splendid example.

(M.C. Gazetted 3rd June 1916.)

Capt. and Bt. Maj. Francis Poitier Nosworthy, M.C., R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of his company. Although much shaken by the explosion of three large enemy shells he carried out the work allotted to him with conspicuous success. Later, he made a reconnaissance of the enemy's position and obtained most valu-