Whereas by an Order dated the 7th day of May, 1917, the Army Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, prohibited the sale of imported Soft Wood at prices exceeding those current during the week ending 31st January, 1917, in the locality in which it may be proposed to make any such sale and in transactions between parties standing in corresponding relations:

And whereas the Army Council deem it desirable that the sale of Soft Wood imported from Norway, Sweden or Denmark after the 15th day of May, 1917, should be permitted on certain conditions other than those contained in the said Order:

Now, therefore, the Army Council give notice that they hereby authorise and permit the sale by the importer thereof of Soft Wood imported into the United Kingdom from Norway, Sweden or Denmark after the 15th day of May, 1917, at prices not exceeding a figure 10 per cent. in excess of the actual cost of such Soft Wood delivered to store in the United Kingdom, provided that the price so calculated shall not exceed the price current during the week ending the 31st January, 1917, for Soft Wood of a similar quality and description in the locality in which it may be proposed to make any such sale and in transactions between parties standing in corresponding relations, by more than one-third of such current price:

And the Army Council further give notice that they hereby authorise and permit the sale by persons other than the importer thereof of Soft Wood imported into the United Kingdom at prices not exceeding the price current during the week ending 31st January, 1917, for Soft Wood of a similar quality and description in the locality in which it may be proposed to make any such sale and in transactions between parties standing in corresponding relations by more than one-third of such current price.
