

trench. He set a splendid example of courage and determination.

2nd Lt. Thomas Rogers, R. Berks. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his platoon with great gallantry and captured an enemy strong point. He set a magnificent example throughout the operations. He was severely wounded.

2nd Lt. Thomas Rowell, R. Berks. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He organised a party, and succeeded in capturing an enemy machine gun and destroying the team. He set a fine example to his men.

Temp. Capt. James Dewar Russell, High. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although wounded early in the action, he carried on throughout the day in the thick of the fighting, and remained at duty until the battalion was relieved.

2nd Lt. George Scott, R. Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of a raiding party. He led his men in a most gallant manner, and succeeded in inflicting many casualties on the enemy. After the raid was over he returned to the enemy's lines and brought back a wounded man.

Temp. Lt. (actg. Capt.) Valentine John Sharkey, N. Lanc. R., attd. R. War. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed marked skill in forming posts in order to provide a forming-up place for the troops carrying out the attack. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout the operations.

Capt. Bertrand Cecil Owens Sheridan, M.B., R.A.M.C., Spec. Res., attd. Worc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He tended the wounded continuously for twelve hours under very heavy fire. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout.

2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) Frank Lawrence James Shirley, York. R. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and skill on many occasions in photographing the enemy's position. On one occasion, although severely wounded, he completed his work and succeeded in landing his machine safely.

2nd Lt. James Goodwin Shuttleton, High. L.I., attd. Glouc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rushed an enemy trench, and then led his platoon forward through a village, driving the enemy before him. Later, he rendered invaluable assistance during the work of consolidation.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Horace Enfield Simmons, Welsh R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He displayed great courage and skill in fixing a torpedo in position in the enemy's wire. He has at all times set a fine example.

2nd Lt. Hugh Skinner, R. Scots, Spec. Res., and M.G. Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of a tank. He penetrated entirely without support into a strong fortified village and inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy.

Temp. 2nd Lt. James Henry Smart, R.E., attd. Cav. Corps Signals.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and skill in establishing and maintaining communication under the most difficult conditions. He set a magnificent example to his men.

*Temp. 2nd Lt. Alexander William Smythe, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when acting as Forward Observing Officer. He exposed himself freely under very heavy fire, and throughout kept the divisional artillery supplied with early and accurate information.

Temp. Lt. Philip Ponsonby Steel, Bedf. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He carried out a difficult operation with complete success, occupying a sunken road on the left of his battalion front, and thereby securing a dangerous flank. During the subsequent attack he was severely wounded.

Capt. Thomas Stewart, R. Scots.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He carried out several valuable reconnaissances, and brought back most valuable information. He was largely responsible for the success of the operations.

2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) John Storrar, R. Scots.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great initiative and resource in overthrowing a strong enemy counter-attack. Later, he made a most gallant attempt to rescue a wounded officer.

2nd Lt. George Ronald Yorston Stout, A. & S. Highrs., attd. R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When on infantry contract patrol he flew twice for periods of two hours at a very low altitude, and on each occasion brought in a very complete and detailed report of the situation of the attack. He has at all times displayed great courage and skill.

Temp. 2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Henry George Latimer Strange, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He carried out a difficult reconnaissance, and obtained most valuable information. Later, in spite of the most difficult conditions, he carried out the work allotted to him with conspicuous success.

2nd Lt. (temp. Lt.) Alexander Reid Stuart, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. In spite of the fact that shells kept falling within a few feet of him he worked