The Minister of Labour, by virtue of section 2 of the Labour Exchanges Act, 1909, and all other powers conferred on him in this behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

1. (1) Advisory committees shall be appointed by the Minister of Labour in such areas of the United Kingdom as he may think fit, or for the United Kingdom as a whole, after consultation with such bodies and persons as he may think best qualified to advise him on the matter.

(2) The members of an advisory committee, including the chairman, shall remain in office for three years, except where the Minister otherwise directs in any particular case, and provided that any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall not hold office after the termination of the period during which the person in whose place he is appointed would have held office.

(3) Sub-committees of an advisory committee may be appointed, and a sub-committee for women's work shall be appointed in all cases, except where the Minister of Labour is satisfied that its appointment is unnecessary; the chairman and members of each sub-committee shall be appointed by the Minister of Labour after consultation with the advisory committee.

(4) If any members present at a meeting of an advisory committee or sub-committee dissent from a resolution passed by a majority of the committee or sub-committee at that meeting, they shall have the right to have their views duly recorded, and it shall be the duty of the chairman to forward this record, with a copy of the resolution, to the Minister of Labour.

(5) Subject to these Regulations, the procedure of any advisory committee or sub-committee shall be determined from time to time by the Minister of Labour, or by the committee or sub-committee, with the approval of the Minister.

2. All applications for accommodation within the premises of an Exchange shall be made to the officer in charge of such Exchange, who shall consult the advisory committee for the district. Any such application shall only be granted for such purposes and on such terms and conditions as may be laid down in general rules made by the committee, with the approval of the Minister.

3. The Minister shall have power to termi-
