

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of July, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 28th day of June, in the year 1917, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint Andrew, Avonmouth, situate in the Parish of Shirehampton, in the County of Gloucester, and in the Diocese of Bristol:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Andrew, Avonmouth, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Bristol, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of Shirehampton which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Andrew, Avonmouth, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Avonmouth.'

"And with the like consent of the said George, Bishop of Bristol, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Andrew, Avonmouth, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same Church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Avonmouth, being:—

"All that part of the Parish of Shirehampton, in the County of Gloucester, and in the Diocese of Bristol, which is bounded upon the south-west by the Parish of Easton-in-Gordano, in the County of Somerset, and in the Diocese of Bath and Wells, upon the north-west by the Estuary of the River Severn, upon the north-east by the Parish of Henbury, in the said County of Gloucester, and in the said Diocese of Bristol, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Henbury from the said Parish of Shirehampton at the point in the middle of the stream known as the Shirehampton Rhine where such stream meets the north-eastern side of the road leading from Barracks Cottages towards Shirehampton, and extending thence, first southward to the middle of such road, and then first south-eastward, then southward, then south-westward, and then again southward, along the middle of the same road for a distance in all of 54 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Shirehampton to Avonmouth, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to its junction with West Town Road, and extending thence, first westward, and then generally south-westward, along the middle of West Town Road (thereby crossing the Bristol Port and Pier Line of the Great Western and Midland Joint Railway) for a distance of 43 chains or thereabouts to its south-western end on the north-eastern bank of the River Avon, and continuing thence south-westward in precisely the same direction as the last part of West Town Road and in a straight line for a distance of 6 chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the River Avon upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Shirehampton from the said Parish of Easton-in-Gordano."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bristol.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of July, 1917.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased, in exercise of the power in that behalf conferred on Him by Section one, sub-section one, of the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, by divers Proclamations,
