

5. It is ordained that each Medal shall be suspended from the left breast, and the riband, of an inch and three-eighths in width, shall be dark blue with a narrow yellow stripe on either side: Provided that when the Medal is awarded to a woman it shall be worn on the left shoulder, suspended from a riband of the same width and colour fashioned into a bow.

6. It is ordained that any act of gallantry which is worthy of recognition by the award of the Edward Medal, but is performed by one upon whom the Decoration has already been conferred may, on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, be recorded by a Bar attached to the riband by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional act an additional Bar may be added.

7. In order to make such provision as shall effectually preserve pure these most honourable Decorations, it is ordained that if any person on whom either of such Decorations is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which, in Our judgment, disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, be forthwith erased from the Register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred and his Medal shall be forfeited. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an agreement to return the same, if his name shall be so erased as aforesaid under this regulation. It is hereby further declared that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be the sole judges of the circumstances demanding such forfeiture. Moreover, We shall at all times have power to regrant a Medal to any person whose Medal may at any time have been forfeited.

8. The Warrants of the 13th July, 1907, and 1st December, 1909, are hereby revoked.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, this Twenty-eighth day of August, One thousand nine hundred and seventeen, in the Eighth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to confer the dignity of a Baronet of the said United Kingdom upon Arthur Herbert Drummond Ramsay-Steel-Maitland, of Sauchie, in the County of Stirling, Esquire, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten.

His Majesty the KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal to Newarti Kushaba (who is employed by the Municipality of Bombay), under the following circumstances:—

On the 3rd November, 1916, while a brick plug was being removed from an outfall sewer pipe at the Bombay Municipal Sewage Works, a coolie was overcome by gas. Two other coolies at once went down the man-hole, shaking off their fellow-workmen who attempted to restrain them, and refusing to wait until they could be roped. They fastened their fellow-workman to a rope and sent him up, but were then overcome themselves. Newarti then went down. He found one of the coolies with difficulty and sent him up, and was then ordered to the surface. He at once went down again, but failed to find the other, whose body was not recovered until hours later: Both the rescued men died shortly after their rescue.

Although the atmosphere was less foul when Newarti first descended, and was probably almost clear at his second descent, he and the others present were not aware that this was so, and he undoubtedly risked his life in endeavouring to save the lives of others.
