

tell us from Copenhagen of the 16th Instant, that they had Advice of Sir Cloudefly Skovell's arrival at Gottenburg with the Squadron under his command.

Paris, Nov. 19. The Mareschal de Tourville is on his way hither from Toulon; where they continue to disarm all the Men of War; The Seamen belonging to the Western Provinces are sent to Brest and Port-Louis by the Canal of Languedoc. The French Court is much alarmed at the taking of Scio, which, together with the other losses the Turks have suffered the last Campagne, they apprehend will dispose them to make a Peace with the Emperor and his Allies; upon which occasion several Expresses have been of late dispatched to our Ambassador at Constantinople, with directions to employ his utmost endeavours to hinder it, and in order thereunto to amuse the Turkish Ministers (as he has hitherto done) with the Promises of giving the Enemy a great Diversion the next year. Several Edicts are come out for raising of Money, but they not being sufficient to produce the Fonds that are wanting, it is now in agitation to raise a Tax by a Poll. They write from Dankirke, that Capt. Du Bart failed from thence the 13th to the Northward, to convoy home divers Merchant Ships that are coming with Corn from Dantzicke.

Brussels, Nov. 21. The Elector of Bavaria has given the Office of Great Bayliff of the Walloon-Brabant, vacant by the death of the Count de Dongelberg, to the Baron d'Isire one of the Deputies in the States of Brabant. All the Advices from the French Conquests assure us, that the People there are grievously burthened by the new Taxes and Impostions that are daily invented, and laid upon them by the French Kings order; which occasions great Complaints and Uneasiness among them. We have Advice, that Du Bart passed by Offend the 13th Instant with 5 or 6 Ships, taking their course to the Northward.

Hague, Nov. 23. N. S. The Duke of Holstein-Ploen has been at Huy to view that Garrison, and the new Fortifications that are making there, and is returned from thence to Maeftrecht. The Deputies of the Admiralties, who have had several Conferences with those of the States, about our Maritime Affairs, are gone home again. The Spanish Envoy, Don Francisco de Quiros, parted from hence the 20th Instant for Brussels, from whence he will return hither in 8 or 10 days. The last Letters from Venice tell us, that their Forces had taken at Scio 236 Pieces of Cannon, 3 Gallies, 26 Saicks, with divers other Vessels, and a great quantity of Ammunition; and that 6000 Turks were transported from thence to Smirna. They confirm likewise the raising of the Siege of Ciclut in Dalmatia.

Falmouth, Nov. 12. This morning arrived here the Spanish Expedition in seven days from Coranna; and brings advice, that Admiral Russell Anchored the 7th of the last month in Cadiz Bay. This morning failed hence a Flushing Privateer called the Middlung, to cruise on the French Coast.

Plymouth, Nov. 13. Yesterday came in here a Flushing Privateer with two French Prizes, one laden with Salt, and the other with Wine. This day arrived in this Port a Danish Ship of 400 Tuns called the Angel Gabriel from Norway.

Weymouth, Nov. 14. Yesterday arrived here the Grensey Galley, Capt. Stephens Commander; and brought in 3 Prizes, one a French Ship called the Diligent of Haure de Grace, burthen 120 Tuns, and of 8 Guns, laden with Salt, and having a Commission from the French King; The other two are Ships of 99 and 50 Tuns, and are laden with Wines from Bourdeaux. Capt. Stephens took them last Monday on the Coast of Normandy; and some days before he had taken a French Bark of 14 Tuns laden with Rye and Beans for Bourdeaux.

Deal, Nov. 17. On Wednesday last a Danish Ship of 24 Guns and 50 Men bound home from St. Ubes, called the Crown, was loit on the Godwin Sands, but all the Men, Sails, and Cables, were saved by the Boats that went from hence to her assistance. There came this day into the Dorset a great Fleet of Suedes and Danes outward bound.
