

we are told, that the Santal from the East Indies, with two Barbadoes Men, arrived last Wednesday in the Port of Corke; Though the Letters by the last Post from Corke, do not make mention of the arrival of any Ships there. The Elizabeth of Boston is arrived at Ballimore bound for Bristol.

Falmouth, Nov. 26. This morning came in here two Privateers of Middleborough, the Summer Frigate of 18 Guns, Jasper Navans Commander, and the Swallow of 14 Guns, Peter Cook Commander, and brought in with them two Prizes, viz. the William of 4 Guns, and the Antonio of 10 Guns, both of St. Malo, and bound with Glais and Bale Goods, one for Bourdeaux, and the other for Bayonne.

Plymouth, Nov. 27. Yesterday passed by this Harbour to the Westward with a fair Wind, Their Majesties Ship the Rupert, with 7 or 8 English and Dutch Men of War more, having under their Convoy a Fleet of about 100 Sail of Victuallers, Storeships, and Merchantmen bound to Cadix. The Hope of Copenhagen is come into this Port from St. Ubes.

Kensington, Nov. 28. This day His Majesty was graciously pleased to Confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Thomas Day Esq; Mayor, and William Danes Esq; Sheriff, of Bristol, as a Mark of his Royal Favour for their Loyalty and Zeal to Their Majesties Government, and their great Care of the Government of that City.

At the Court at WHITE-HALL, the 29th of November 1694.

P R E S E N T,

The King's Most-Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council having received Information, that one Joseph Bradshaw (being a tall slender man aged, about 30 Years, of a fair complexion, commonly wearing a light Periwig, being, or pretending to be a Notary, and lately living near Doctors-Commons, London) with others his Accomplices, Armed with Swords, Pistols, and other Weapons, did on Wednesday the 21th Instant, in the Night time, make an Assault upon John Swift, Marshall, and Keeper of the Prison in the Savoy, where divers Persons were in Custody for High Treason, and did dangerously wound the said Swift and two of his Servants, and broke open the Prison Doors, whereby divers of the Prisoners escaped, and one Person was killed, but the said Bradshaw made his Escape, and fled from Justice. His Majesty by the Advice of his Privy Council, hath thought fit to Order a Reward of two hundred Pounds unto such Person or Persons as shall apprehend the said Bradshaw, and bring him before some Judge, Justice of Peace, or other Magistrate, who are forthwith to commit him to the next Gaol, there to remain till thence delivered by due course of Law, and to give notice thereof to one of Their Majesties Principal Secretaries of State, or to the Lord Chief Justice, or some other of the Judges of the Kings-Bench, that he may be proceeded against according to Law. And His Majesty doth hereby Order and Direct the Lords Commissioners of Their Majesties Treasury, forthwith to pay unto such Person or Persons as shall apprehend and bring the said Bradshaw before some Judge, Justice or Magistrate, as aforesaid, the said Reward of two hundred Pounds.

RICHARD COLINGE.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England do give notice, That all those who have not signed the Instrument approved by them and the General Court to be signed by all Parties concerned, do forthwith repair to the Bank to sign the same, to prevent any inconvenience which may otherwise ensue.

The Managers of the Mill on Adventure do hereby give notice, That on Friday the Thirtieth of November past, 1694, they met at their Office in Newkildstreet, and continue to sit there from day to day from the hours of nine in the morning till two in the afternoon for the space of sixty days, ending the 12th of February next, to know and write down the Names and Surnames, with the respective Places of Abode of all Persons who are possessed of the Numbered Tickets for which Fortunate Lots have been drawn, to witte their Properties; And all Persons therein concerned, are advised to indorse their Names upon their Tickets, in case they shall be brought to the Managers by any other hands; And all the Fortunate Numbers, with the several Prizes to which they belong, shall be drawn and Compas'd by the Managers, into the Register and Libes, is Printed together by Freeman Collins.

Whereas divers Persons have lately presumed to Exercise several Lotteries, Games, and new Inventions resembling them, contrary to the express Prohibition of Their Majesties Letters Patents Granted to the present Farmers of the Lotteries, who pay a considerable Rent for the same, to the great Detriment of the said Farmers, and are likewise the chief occasion of the common prejudice generally conceived against the Lotteries; This is to give Notice, and to desire all Civil Magistrates, and others, whom it may concern, that in pursuance of the said Letters Patents, they do showth effectually suppress, and punish according to Law, all such as shall so presume to create, use, or exercise any such Lotteries or Inventions, without the License of the said Farmers first duly had and obtained.

Advertisements.

The History of the Troubles and Tryal of the most Reverend Father in God William Laud Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Written by himself during his Imprisonment in the Tower. To which is prefixed the Diary of his own Life, faithfully and entirely published from the Original Copy: And is joined a Supplement containing the Archbishops last Will, his large Answer to the Lord Sajs Speech concerning Liturgies; His Annual Accounts of his Province delivered to the King, and some other things relating to the History. Printed for R. Chiswell at the Rose and Crown in St. Pauls Church-Yard.

An Elegy on his Grace John Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. A Poem. Sold by John Whillock near Stationers-Hall. Price 3d.

The Resurrection of the (same) Body Asserted; from the Traditions of the Heathens, the Ancient Jews, and the Primitive Church, With an Answer to the Objections brought against it. By Humphry Mody, D. D. Fellow of Wadham College in Oxford, and Chaplain to his Grace John Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Printed for A. and J. Churchill at the Black-Swan in Peter-Nolter-Row.

The Political Will and Testament of that Great Minister of State Cardinal Duke de Richelieu; from whence Lewis the 14th, the present French King, has taken his Measures and Maxims of Government. In Two Parts. Done out of French. Sold by R. Bentley in Covent-Garden, and J. Taylor and J. Philips in St. Pauls Church-Yard.

All Persons that intend to be Purchasers of the Manor of Montfeild mentioned in last Thursdays Gazete, are desired before they purchase the same, to repair to Mr. Bedford at his Seat in the Six-Clerks-Office in Chancery-Lane for farther satisfaction relating to that Matter.

Ten Copper Plates curiously Engraven, printed off in Black upon White, and Red upon White, for the use of Schools, 6 Sheet Plates, and 4 half Sheets; Two of the Sheet Plates never Printed off before. Whoever has occasion may be furnished with any quantity at reasonable rates, at Henry Lane's Writing Master at the Hand and Pen near Gravel Lane in Hounslow.

The Commissioners authorized by virtue of a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Christopher Dookey late of Newcastle under line in Staffordshire, Grocer, intend to meet at the Bell Tavern in Friday-Street, London, on the 24th Instant, in order to make a Dividend of the said Dookeys Estate already discovered; and such of the Creditors that have not proved their Debts shall then pay their Contribution money, and prove their Debts, lest they be excluded.

At Tom's Coffee-House next Ludgate, on Friday the 6th Instant, will be sold by Auction a most valuable Collection of Books, the Libraries of two Persons of great Quality deceased, consisting an Extraordinary Collection of Divinity (particularly the best Editions of the Fathers) History, and all manner of Philosophical Learning in most Languages curiously bound; also a Compleat Set of Continuation and Statute Law Books, with great numbers of Manuscripts in the aforesaid Learning. Catalogues are to be had at the place of sale.

This day will be sold by Auction the Miscellany Notes, at the Crown near the Pump in Little-Britain, in particular will be exposed the Greek Spots in 9 Tomes, St. Austins Opera Secunda with above 100 French both English and Latin, beginning at 11 o'clock and 4 afternoon. Catalogues may be had at Mr. Peers at the place of sale.

On the 11th past from Hillier near Compton in Gloucestershire, two grey Goshawks, each of them, one of them about 5 years old, and the other about 6, and a brace by Mrs. about 14 birds, with a pair, about 6 years, all of them having all their Feet. Whosoever give notice of them to George Hors of Hillier near Compton, or Mr. John Ward at his Chamber in Fleet-Street in the Middle Temple, London, shall have a Good Reward for each, and Charges.