

And whereas it is expedient that Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, should be extended to the said Protectorate:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913, or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, shall, from the date of this Order, apply to the Uganda Protectorate, as though the said Protectorate were a British Possession.

And the Right Honourable Walter Hume Long, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Draft of a Rule proposed to be made by the Lord Chancellor, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, for the amendment of the Supreme Court Funds Rules, 1915.

SUPREME COURT FUNDS RULES, 1917.

I, Robert Bannatyne, Lord Finlay, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers contained in the Court of Chancery Funds Act, 1872, the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, the Supreme Court Funds, etc., Act, 1863, the Supreme Court of Judicature Procedure Act, 1884, and of every other power enabling me in that behalf, make the following rules:—

1. The following paragraph shall be added to Rule LXVIII. :—

“(c) When the dividends or interest out of which the annuities are to be paid have not been subjected to a deduction for Income Tax at the source, the deduction for Income Tax from the annuities shall be made at the rate in force at the time of payment of the annuities, and the Paymaster, notwithstanding Rule 45 of these Rules, shall transfer the tax deducted from such annuities to the proper account of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue at the Bank, unless in any case the Court shall otherwise direct, or a certificate is produced from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue that no claim is made by them in respect of such tax.”

2. These Rules may be cited as the Supreme Court Funds Rules, 1917.

(Signed) Finlay C.

We certify that these Rules are made with the concurrence of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
