

was pleased to make an Order in Council, dated the 24th day of June, 1912 (hereinafter called the Principal Order), extending the protection of the said Act to certain classes of works to which protection is guaranteed by the said Convention:

And whereas His Majesty the Sultan of Morocco has acceded to the said Convention in so far as concerns that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French Protection:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Principal Order shall extend to that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French Protection as if it were amongst the Foreign Countries of the Copyright Union therein named, subject to the following modifications:—

(a) The provisions of Article 2, proviso (iii) (a) shall apply as if the aforesaid Territory were included amongst the Foreign Countries named in those provisions.

(b) In the application of the provisions of Article 3 of the Principal Order to works of which the country of origin is that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French Protection the date of this Order shall be substituted for the Commencement of the Act and for the Commencement of the Principal Order.

(c) In the application to such works of Sections 1 (2) (d) and 19 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the Commencement of the Act in Section 19 (7) and 19 (8) wherever that expression occurs; and the 16th June, 1917, for the passing of the Act.

(d) In the application to such works of the provisions of Section 24 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the Commencement of the Act wherever that expression occurs in Sub-section (1) (a), and for the 26th July, 1910, in Sub-section (1) (b).

And the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury are to give the necessary orders accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of November, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 18th day of October, in the year 1917, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme with respect to the Archdeaconries of Ely and Wisbech, in the Diocese of Ely, and to some of the Rural Deaneries within such Archdeaconries:

“ Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said Archdeaconries of Ely and Wisbech, and with respect to some of the Rural Deaneries within such Archdeaconries, are desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and Episcopal Seal to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, firstly, a new Rural Deanery shall be formed out of the Rural Deanery of Fordham, within the said Archdeaconry of Ely, and shall be named ‘ the Rural Deanery of Cheveley,’ and secondly, a new Rural Deanery shall be formed out of the Rural Deanery of Fincham, within the said Archdeaconry of Wisbech, and shall be named ‘ the Rural Deanery of Feltwell,’ and thirdly, the said Rural Deaneries of Fordham and Cheveley, and the Rural Deanery of Quay in the said Archdeaconry of Ely, and the said Rural Deaneries of Fincham and Feltwell, and the Rural Deaneries of March and Wisbech, in the said Archdeaconry of Wisbech, shall respectively comprise and consist of the Parishes, Cures and Churches, the names of which are set down in numbered order under the names of such Rural Deaneries respectively in the first column of the Schedule to this Scheme annexed, and each of the said Parishes or Cures or Churches shall belong to and be and form part of the Rural Deanery and Archdeaconry under the names of which it is set down as aforesaid, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the Rural Deanery, and of the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry, under which it is so set down as aforesaid, and shall not belong to or be a part of any other Rural Deanery or Archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other Rural Dean or Archdeacon.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, by virtue of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ All which we humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council.
