

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday January 14. to Thursday January 17. 1694

Leghorne, December 27.

THE last Letters from Toulon inform us, That the French Fleet is laid up in that Port; and that there is a great misery in all Provinces. 'Tis confirmed from Tripoli, that Mr. Lodington the English Consul, has renewed the Peace with that Government. We have an account by a Vessel from the Coast of Barbary, that the Algerines have taken the City of Tunis, having granted good Conditions to the Inhabitants. The Upton-Galley arrived here the last Week from England; and on the 23d, an English Ship called the Blackham, bound to this place, arrived at Port Ferrato.

Turin, January 2. The Marquis de Leganes, Governor of Milan, came hither some days ago, and has since had several Conferences with the Duke of Savoy, and the Principal Officers of the Army, about the Affairs of the War. Our Troops have all Orders to be in a readiness to march, which make us think there is a design to attack Casal during the Winter. In the mean time we are assured from all hands, that the Garrison of that place is reduced to great necessities.

Milan, January 4. Our Troops employed in the Blockade of Casal, have intercepted a Letter written by the Governor of that place to the French Court, wherein he presses very earnestly for speedy Relief, and particularly for a supply of Money to pay the Garrison; and declares, he shall otherwise be forced to surrender it to the Enemy.

Venice, January 7. All the Advices from the Levant give an account, That the Turks are extremely concerned at the loss of Scio, which they look upon as a matter of such consequence to them, that they have resolved to make their utmost efforts for the regaining of it; The Venetians, at the same time, employ their Care and Endeavours, not only to maintain this Conquest, but to enlarge it, by making farther attempts upon the Turkish Islands in the Archipelago; and have accordingly sent Instructions to the Captain-General, and are hastning all the Succours they can to him.

Vienna, Jan. 8. The Preparations for the War are carried on here with great application. The Count de Raventlau has made an agreement to raise 2000 Danes for the Emperors Service, who, 'tis said, are to march with some other Troops to Piedmont, to supply the room of the Germans that are to be sent from thence to the assistance of the Spaniards in Catalonia. Prince Eugene of Savoy arrived here the last Week from Turin. General Caprara is made a Knight of the Golden Fleece. The Count de Tcherin is gone to his Estate in Bohemia, from whence he will continue his Journey to Poland, to take care of the Emperors Interests at the Diet of that Kingdom, which is to meet the 12th of this month. We hear from all hands, that the Turks are very intent upon their design of recovering Scio; That several Troops are already sent for that purpose to Salonica; and that the Grand Visier will himself command the Forces employed in that Expedition. They write from Hungary, that the Imperial Commissary was providing Wagons and Horses for the use of the Turks of Gyula, who are to be conducted to Temeswar, and that they believed they should, in their next Letters, give an account of the Garrisons being marched out.

Transport, January 16. Three thousand French commanded by the Sieur de Melac, were in motion the last Week towards the Neckar; and their Vanguard attempted to pass that River, but the Ice not being strong enough to bear them, several were drowned, and the rest thereupon retired to their main Body, which is marched back to their Quarters, without doing any thing considerable. The Imperial Troops in the Frontier places, are ordered to keep strict Guards to observe the Enemy; and they were drawing together to oppose the Troops beforementioned, but hearing of their retreat, returned likewise to their Garrisons. Prince Lewis of Baden has put off his Journey to Vienna till the beginning of the next month; and many think he will not go thither at all this Winter, that he may lose no time in hastning the Preparations that are making in these parts for the next Campaign.

Gortorp, January 8. The Duke of Holstein Gortorp died here the 6th Instant, in the 54th year of his Age, after a Sickness of 8 or 9 days, leaving his Son Prince Frederick his Successor, Aged about 20 years.

Paris, January 17. The Ministers of this Court have not yet been able to regulate the Poll-Tax, by reason of the difficulties they meet with in settling the way of raising it, as well as the apprehensions they have of the great disturbances it will occasion in the Provinces. An Edict has been Published to turn the places of the Receivers of the Gabels, Aids and Customs, into Hereditary Offices; in consideration whereof, they that at present possess them, are to pay great Sums of Money. The French King appears to be very much troubled at the Death of the Duke of Luxembourg, and cannot yet pitch upon any body to succeed him in the Command of his Army in Flanders. There being a great want of Horses to Recruit our Cavalry, a Reform is ordered to be made of five men in every Troop, who are to be put into the Foot. They write from Brest, that some Frigates are fitting out there, to serve as Privateers upon the conditions formerly mentioned. Captain du Bart, who arrived lately at Dunkirk, brought with him only 15 Merchant Ships, 6 whereof were laden with Corn for the French Kings account, and 6 for the Merchants. Several Expresses are arrived here by the way of Boulogne, Calais and Dunkirk, with the News of the Queen of Englands Death.

Brussels, January 19. Their Electoral Highness's of Bavaria arrived here privately the 11th Instant, about 8 in the Evening, Orders having been given before by the Elector, for omitting the appearance of the Burghers in Arms, and the other Publick Solemnities that were intended on this Occasion; The Courts of Justice and Finances, and all the Nobility, and other Persons of Quality, have since made their Compliments to Their Electoral Highness's; To which the Magistrates and Commonalty of this City, have added a Present to the Electors of 12000 Crowns in Gold; And the Students in the Jesuits College, made, the 14th Instant, a Cavalcade to attend them to the Palace. The Weather is extremely Cold in these Countries, beyond what has been usually known. And at present, all is very quiet on our Frontiers. The Count de Sinzendorf, who was sent hither by the Emperor with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary, to Complement their Electoral Highness's upon their Marriage, having performed his Commission, intends to leave this place to-morrow on his return to Vienna.

Hague, January 21. N.S. The News of the Queen of Englands Death, causes a very great and universal affliction in these Countries; All sorts of People are putting themselves in Mourning; And for a farther expression of Sorrow, Orders are given, that through all the Provinces the

Bels

Bristol, where all sorts of Waives, Trawl-bone, and much better than could be had at much easier rates their Warehouse in Upper-Moorfields, with all sorts of nd Father in God, of Canterbury. By N. B. Aylmer at the Three Cornhill; and W. Rogers Fleetstreet.

ely Published for from the Flood, second Julius Caesar, and from Manufcripts, and H. B. Majesty K. William; in Eminent Persons both in mel Elg; The Under- n: do hereby give no it of the Proposals most Undertakers, H. Rhoda, here Proposals are to be Country.

ope, containing an creeds, Pretensions, and Month of Decemb. 1693. the Original Published at the Star in the Corner is at the Harrow in the Virtue, to several port Reflections on divers e at the Red-Lyon in

ng an Account of me and Abroad. To be January 1695. Printed ancancy Lane; and Rich- ick Lane.

ded against John Moore is hereby given to all Goods of his, that they such Goods, unless by O- liam Halford (one of the Court near the New-Ex-ppointed in the Commis- Thomas Currey late of to meet at the Inn- ay the first of February d of the Estate, at which it they come prepared to eluded; and all Persons quired to pay in the re-

Erected at Hillbree Island Masters of Ships who has r. Richard Scaddon at the Elg, present Mayor of ly for the same.

per Annum, N. 16110, een lost: All Persons are iring it to David Barre, the Held in the Parish of Hereford, has not been years and upwards, shall to signify to his Sister aid, how the way direct ment.

er in Kent, the 10th 15 hands, full aged, but Sports, and a grey mare ll her Paces, a hole in her. Whoever gives notice of Michael Ruffell in a Wheel- ton, shall have a Guine