

they are still paid of late. We hear that the Ships designed for the East-Indies will not sail from Rochelle till towards the middle of the next month. The last Letters from Pignerol say, the Allies have resolved to besiege Casal in the Spring.

Brussels, Febr. 2. The Elector of Bavaria has appointed the Count de Rivers to go for England to make his Compliment of Condolence upon the Death of the Queen. A French Party of 700 Horse and Foot came on Thursday last to Guidenguien, but the Garisons of Atth and Ninove having notice of it, sent out Parties likewise, whereupon the Enemy retired without attempting any thing. A Party of this Garison of 50 Horse and Dragoons brought higher Prisoners on Saturday last, the Burgermaster of Namur, with 7 or 8 other Persons, whom they took within Murket Shot of the Counterscarp of that place. The preparations are made here with all possible diligence for the sending 1000 dismounted Troopers and 2000 men more from these parts, to reinforce the Spanish Army in Catalonia.

Hague, Febr. 4. N. S. The States of Holland have resolved to raise the Hundred Penny twice this year, at four payments as it was the last. The Deputies of the Admiralties continue their Conferences with those of the State about our Sea Preparations, which are in great forwardness, as well as those by Land.

Falmouth, Jan. 24. The Dunkirke and other Men of War designed for Jamaica, sailed out of this Port the 22th in the Evening, and being joined by the Transport and Merchant Ships from Plymouth, they all proceeded upon their Voyage.

Kensington, Jan. 29. The Justices of the Peace assembled at the General Quarter Sessions for the West-Riding of the County of York, have in their Humble Address to His Majesty, Expressed their Sorrow for the great Loss all His Majesty's Subjects do sustain by the Death of our most Gracious Queen; and do farther beg Leave to Assure His Majesty, that they will with their Lives and Fortunes defend His Majesty's Person and Government against all His Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hertford, have made a Loyal Address to His Majesty, Condoling the Death of the Queen, and Assuring His Majesty, that they are ready to prostrate their Lives and Fortunes for the support of His Majesty's Government, against all his Enemies whatsoever.

The Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, do in like manner Condole the Death of the Queen, and Assure His Majesty of their constant Loyalty and Resolution to stand by and assist His Majesty to the utmost of their Power against the wicked Devices and Attempts of His Majesty's Enemies at Home and Abroad.

The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of Ripon in the County of York, have also made an Humble Address, Expressing their great Sorrow for the Death of the Queen, and Assuring His Majesty of their fixed Resolutions to defend His Majesty in His Royal Person and Government to the utmost of their Power, against all His Enemies whatsoever; Which was delivered by their Representatives in Parliament.

The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of Richmond in the County of York, have likewise made an Humble Address, declaring the deep Sense they have of our inexpressible Loss by the Death of the Queen, and their readiness to sacrifice on all Occasions what is most dear to them for His Majesty's Interest and Service; Which was delivered by their Representatives in Parliament.

The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, and Freemen of the City of Recheester, have in a like Loyal Address represented their extreme Sorrow on this Sad Occasion, and their Loyal Resolution of defending His Majesty against all His Enemies; Which was delivered by their Representatives in Parliament.

The Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of Wallingford in the County of Bucks, have also made an Humble Address to Condole the Queen's Death, and to Assure His Majesty, that they shall be ready upon all Occasions to stand by His Majesty with their Lives and Fortunes in defence of his Sacred Person, and support of the present Government; Which was delivered by their Representatives in Parliament.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of St. Albans in the County of Hertford, do likewise in their Humble Address Express their great Sorrow for the Death of the Queen, and their readiness to assist His Majesty to their utmost Power, against all His Enemies at Home and Abroad.

All which Addresses His Majesty Accepted very Graciously.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 29. Whereas a Letter was sent on the 22d Instant to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, by an unknown Hand, concerning the French ship lately taken by His Majesty's Ships the Mourague and England Frigate; These are therefore to give notice, that if the said Person attends their Lordships, what he desires in his aforesaid Letter will be granted.

William Bridgeman.

Advertisements.

Of the Impunity of Bad Men in the World. A Sermon Preach'd at Whitehall, Decemb. 30. 1694. By Philip Falle, Ch. Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majesty. Published by Command. Printed for John Newton at the Three Pigeons against the Inner-Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet.

A Sermon Preach'd at the Parish-Church of St. Andrews Holborn, the 30th of December last, on the lamented Death of our most Gracious Sovereign Queen Mary. By Tho. Mannyngham D. D. Rector of St. Andrew Holborn, and Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majesty. Printed for S. Smith and B. Walford at the Prince's Arms in St. Pauls Church-Yard, and Eliz. Croke at the Green-Dragon without Temple-Bar.

The Mourning Muse of Alexis. A Pastoral. Lamenting the Death of our late Gracious Queen Mary of ever Blessed Memory. By Mr. Congreve.

A Funeral Elegy upon the Death of the Queen. By Mr. Wallis. Both Printed for Jacob Tonson at the Judge-Head near the Inner-Temple Gate in Fleetstreet.

Dr. Sydenham's Compleat Method of Curing almost all Distempers, and Description of their Symptomata. To which are now added 5 Discourses of the same Author concerning Pleurisy, Gout, Hysterical Passion, Dropsie, and Rheumatism. Abridged, and faithfully Translated out of the Original Latin. With short and useful Notes on the former part, written by a late Learned Physician, and never before Printed. Edited for H. Newman at the Grasshopper in the Poultry, and Rich. Parker at the Unicorn under the Piazza of the Royal-Exchange.

Essays on Trade and Navigation. By Sir Francis Brewster Kt. Printed for Tho. Cockerill at the Three Legs the Poultry over-against the Stocks Market.

Bibliotheca Nobilissima, or a Collection of Books in Divinity, History, Humaneity, Poetry, Geography, Philology, and other Critical Learning whatever is scarce and valuable in Gr. and Lat. of the finest Prints of the famed Princes of Europe, consisting of 1000 Volumes in Folio, collected by three Learned Gentlemen, will be sold by Auction on the 21th of February next, at Rolls Auction-House in St. Pauls Church-Yard. Catalogues are given from Mr. Kettilbys in St. Pauls Church-Yard, Wills Coffee-House by the Court of Requests, Mr. Graves in Cambridge, and Mr. Sherley in Oxford.

Statute of Bankrupt being awarded against William Mitchell of London, Chapman, the Commissioners will sit at the Yorkshire Coffee-House in St. Lawrence-lane, London, on the 13th of February next, at 3 after Noon; and all the Creditors who do not pay in their Contribution-Money, and provide their Debts, will be excluded from any Relief by the said Statute.

John Smyth, a German, tall and raw boned, of swarthy Complexion, with a cut on his left Cheek and his right Wrist, aged about 36, speaks broken English; Thomas Herbert, a black well-set swarthy Man, aged about 40, and Joseph Heaiche, a middle sized well-set Man, aged about 28, are accused of committing a Robbery and Burglary on the 30th of December last, at the House of Henry Coggill Esq; at Aldenham near bushy in Hertfordshire, and took away near 2000 l. in Money. Whoever secures any of the said Persons shall have a Reward of 10 l. for each, and after the rate of 30 l. per Cent. for any part of the Money recovered, upon notice to Henry Coggill Esq; as aforesaid, or to Mr. William Hide in Bucklersbury, London.

Lost on Saturday between Westminster and Whitechapel, a Supplice with a Doctors Hood and Square Cap in a Path betwixt Box. Whoever brings them to Mr. Smith, Bookseller, at the Princes-Arms in St. Pauls Church Yard, shall have a Guinea.

Those that are curious in Seals, cut in Cornelian, Agate, Berlin, Onyx, Sardonyx, &c. with variety of fine Facies, Heads, and Figures, both Ancient and Modern, may be furnished by J. Marlow, Goldsmith, at the Spread-Eagle in Lombard Street; where you may have Coats of Arms, Cypheers, and other Devices; curiously Engraved on any sort of Stone.