published by Authority.

From Sunday February 11. to Thursday February 14. 1694.

THE Norfolk Circuit appointed for this Lent Ailizes, is as follows:

Norfolk Circuit.
Mr. Justice Nevill.
Mr. Justice Rokby.

Monday March 4. at Styl shony.
Tuesday March 7. at B. iford.
Wednesday March 11. at the Town of H. n.
Thursday March 12. at the Castle of Cant.
Friday March 15. at Thetford.
Saturday March 20. at St. w. market.

Monday Jan. 19. The Letters from Cadix of the the Men of War in that Port; That several clean Ships were going out to Cruise; That the Deptford, Capt. ... Commander, had taken and brought to a French Ship of 18 Guns called the St. He.
laden with Oyl, Almonds, Soap, bound for St. Malors; and that the R. solution Frigat, Mr. ... Commander, was arrived there in 9 days from the Isle of Wight. They write from Malaga of the 4th, that His Majesty's Ship the Brida was come in with 4 Tenders, to take on Board Wine and Fruit for the service of the Fleet: And from Alcaniz of the same date we are told, that the Comte d'Aguiar was arrived there in a Genouefe Ship in 13 days from Genoua, but that they met with very bad Weather in the Gulf of Lyma, which obliged them to throw part of their Goods over-board. On the 9th Instant the Almirante of Castile was declared Master of the Horse to the King of Spain; and on the 13th Don Alonso Carnero, Secretary of the Universal Dispatch, was removed from that Office, and Don Juan de Lorea at present supplies his place.
The Moors still continue the Siege of Centa, but have hitherto advanced very little.

Coruma, Feb. 5. We have an account from Bil.
of the 17th past, that the Newfoundland Ships that lately sailed from thence under Convoy of the Arch.
were safely arrived in that Port: And from of the 29th past they advise, that on the 27th appeared before that place a Fleet of about 50 Sail of Ships, supposed to be the Convoy from England, bound thither and to Lisbon. They write from Madrid, that the Deptford had taken another French Prize of 18 Guns; and that the English Frigats cruise so diligently that none of the Enemies Ships can pass the Straits.

Leghorn, Jan. 31. By Letters from Messina of the 12th Instant we understand, that 3 Zeland Privateers had brought in there 3 rich French Prizes; one bound from Marseilles to Savonia; another from Constantinople to Marseilles; and the third laden with Corn from Ciprango to Marseilles.

Toulon, Febr. 4. We are still expecting an Account from the Lieutenant of what has passed in those parts since the 15th of December (which is the date of our last Advices from thence) in relation to the Enemies intended Expedition for the recovering of Savo. Prince Charles of Brandenburg, who came hither to partake of the Diversions of the Carnival, is returned to Plamou, very well fa-

Frankfort, Febr. 13. Prince Lewis of Baden began his Journey the 11th Instant from Grossburg towards Vienna; and during his absence the Margrave of Bavaria commands the Confederate Forces on the Rhine; who for this reason has at present his Residence at Hallbrun. The Recruits for the Troops of the Allies are continued with great diligence in all these parts.

Paris, Febr. 15. The Carnival passes here without those Publick Diversions that have been a way of time, in this time, to which the People have now little inclination by reason of the many and heavy Taxes that lie upon them, and the general Poverty of the Kingdom. The scarcity they suffer makes many take a great liberty in their Discourses against the Government; and the last week 120000 Copies of the Parliament of Reims were committed to Print for speaking against the Poll Tax. The Duke of Noulles is to command again the next Summer in Germany. The Marschal de Camille in Provence; and the Marschal de Longe and Chastel in Germany; but his Majesty declared who is to have the chief Command of the Army in Flan- ders. The Advices from Italy continue to speak of the Enemies design to besiege Cisal.

Brussels, Febr. 16. The Elector of Bavaria has given the Command of a Company to the Person that lately brought the Magazine at Namur, with a Reward of Money believes to him and the rest that assisted in that design. The Preparations are hastned for sending 3000 men from hence to serve in Catalonia. The Letters from the Frontiers say, that the Marschal de Boufflers was sent for to the French Court to be present at a great Council of War.

Hague, Febr. 18. N. S. The Deputies of the Admi-ralties have frequent Conferences with the Deputies of the States about our Sea Preparations. The next week divers new Mortars are to be tried which have been cast for the next Summers service.

Dublin, Febr. 7. The Letters from Kinsale of the 5th instant give an account, that His Majesty's Ship the Pearle, Captain Holmes Commander, came into that Port the day before, and brought in with him a French Privateer of 10 Guns and 6 Pattereroes, called the Squadron of Brest, which Capt. Holmes took on the 4th Instant off of Walesford.

Pembroke, Febr. 8. Yesterday came into our Harbour the Joseph of London, John Hyt Commander from Barbadoes.
Falmouth, Febr. 9. The 6th came in here the Spanish Expedition from the Groyne. And on the 7th arrived in this Port the Rebecca of London in 11 weeks from Jamaica; From whence she came with some other Merchant Ships under Convoy of the Atvise Frigate.

Plymouth, Febr. 10. On the 8th arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Atvise from Jamaica, and under her Convoy the Gilbert and Sims bound for London. Yesterday came in His Majesty's Ship the Forefight, with the Sea Power of London from Virginia, which was taken by a French Privateer of 52 Guns, called the Fortune of Dun- kerke, and retaken on the 6th Instant by the Forefight, who gave Chase for several hours to the said Privateer. This day arrived here the Mary Rose of London from Barbadoes;
And the Amelia, and the Richard and Sarah, the two last belonging to London, and both bound home from Jamaica.

Westminster, Febr. 11. His Majesty came this day to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes Seated on the Throne, and the House of Commons being sent for up, His Majesty gave the Royal Assent to

An Act for Granting to his Majesty an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound for One Year, and for applying the Yearly Sum of Three Hundred Thousand Pounds, for Five Years, out of the Duties of Tunnage and Portage, and other Sums of Money, Payable upon Merchandises Imported and Exported, for Carrying on the War against the French with Vigour.

An Act for Exempting Apothecaries from Serving the Offices of Constable, Scavenger, and other Parishes and Ward-Offices, and from Serving upon the Poor.
