THE

Form of the Proceeding

TO THE

Of Her late Majesty

UEEN MARY II.

Of Blessed Memory,

From the Royal Palace of WHITEHALL to the Collegiate Church at WESTMINSTER; the 5th Day of this Instant March, 1694 To begin at Twelve a Clock.

[To be punctually Observed by all Persons therein Concerned.]

March 2. 1684

I do appoint Edward Jones to Print this Account of the Proceeding.

NORFOLKE, and MARSHALL.

Night Marshal's Men, to clear the Way. Knight Marshal's Deputy. Servants to the Officers of Arms.

Three hundred poor Women, four and four.

To meet in the Inner Court at Whitehall, where the Statue ic.

2 Trumpets.

prove their Debu, and if riont that are D. bort 612

rmens of his Gire

y John with the Day in St. Pauls Church val Samons Scot's Pills

sella Inglish with their th, from idialough; many s Bagnio in Long Ace, arnished with them to the thons how to usual i.

at. Fr. Eng. and Ind. t-Garden, Mr. Gilijd en

al. and Spanift, in Driem, h feveral Clatticks Pred at reasonable Rain.

ed Infrant, being a milie.

foever thall fecure him rd edy of the faid Marbilia all have 20 L. Reward, ad of March, about to is the n the Strand, and the Uti arden, two Diamond Er-to Mr. Cameli, Goldinia, Unicorn in Bedford-firm, etors of the Blyth Color, eapfide, on Friday the 15th all Perfoor concessed to oife Efq, a Spoon and Fee, raved with a Tygon Her. Diggle, Goldmith, with ngcroft, shall have the side eifon (who follorpend lompany in the Hearth's Foot, Sergeant Henry ? orown Hair, agedab #34. grey Coat. Whowark in Fleetflicet, Sil bri e in Corobil. wing will be fold by nees of the Committees inn at Mr. Thoma Siziti 1.1.41.

loufe and what a facility h heen imployed it is with

The Banner of Union born by a Knight, Sir Philip Meadons.

Grooms and Pages of the Chamber.

Officers of the Stable.

House-keepers.

Officers of the Robes, and Ward-robe.

Gentlemen of the Chapel and Vestry in Copes, and the Children of the Chapel singing all the Way.

2 Trumpets.

Officers of the Jewel-house.

Officers and Comptroller of the Works.

Sewers of the Chamber.

Gentlemen-Ushers, Quarter-Waiters.

2 Trumpets.

Chaplains to the King and Queen.

Aldermen of London.

Surveyor-General of the Works, Sir Christopher Wren, K.

2 Trumpets.

Twelve Gentlemen of the Privy-Chamber to the King and Queen, Eight whereof carry the Canopy; of which Number are to be Three of the Queen's Gentlemen-Ushers of the Privy-Chamber.

Who are to Attend with the Canopy at the West Door of the Abbey, to receive and carry it over the Queen's Body when taken out of the Chariot.

Carvers
Cup-bearers to the Queen.
Sewers

2 Trumpets.

An Officer of Arms.

The Queen's Secretary and Treasurer.

Knight-Harbinger, and Master of the Jewel-house.

Lord Mayor of London.

3 Trumpets.

Two Officers of Arms. The House of Commons.

Serjeant at Arms.

Speaker of the House of Commons.

Four Officers of Arms.

The House of Peers.

Serjeant at Arms, and Usher of the Black Rod. Speaker of the House of Peers.

o meet in the ling's Privyodgings, and tooms adjoynng, where they re to be put in rder by the Oficers of Arms.

To meet in the great Banqueting Room.

To meet in the Council Chamber and the Privy-Gallery and Fane Room.

And

That at the Proceeding before the Body,
I. I. A. H. A.

The

The

Clare ing t Ch Ch

bo Sir T.

Six B

Sir iv. Sir w.

Sir D.

Sir W.

eadons.

e Children

An Officer of Arms.

The Banner of Chester, The Banner of Wales, The Banner of Cornwall, 9 Born by LORDS.

An Officer of Arms.

The Banner of Ireland, by the Earl of Montrath

The Banner of Scotland, by the Earl of Selkirke.

Two Officers of Arms.

the youngest of each Degree The Great Banner, The Banner of England, The Banner of France and England quarterly, Born by EARLS.

The Queen's Master of the Horse, Lord Viscount Villers. leading the Mourning Horle; and two Equerries (with their Caps) attending.

The Helmet and Crest, born by an Officer of Arms.

The Target, born by an Officer of Arms.

The Sword, born by an Officer of Arms.

The Coat of Arms, born by Norroy, King of Arms.

The Queen's Lord Chamberlain, Lord Marquis of Winchester.

The Church of Westminster, at the Entrance into the Abbey, are to fall into the Proceeding here.

Clarenceux, King of Arms, (between two Gentlemen Ushers) carrying the Scepters, Orb, and Crown, on a Cushion; except at such time as the Body is in the Chariot: And then Clarenceux, with the two Gentlemen Ulhers, go before the Queen's Lord Chamberlain.

Six Bannerolls. born by

Three Peers. Assistants to the Corps, or Supporters of the Pall.

Sir W. Roberts.

Sir T. Parkyns.

Sir W. Ruffell.

Sir D. Hampson.

Sir W. Colepeper.

Sir W. Villers. , next Led thouf at to Milan t

The Body, in an open Chariot, drawn by eight Horses, a Man to lead each Horse; and the Sceptres, Orb and Crown upon a Purple Velvet Cushion. Two of the Queen's Bedchamber Women, one fitting at the Head, and the other at the Feet, to take care of the Body.

Three Peers, Assistants to the Corps, or Supporters of the Pall.

Six Bannerolls, born by

Who after ving the Ho

the Door of Church, is t

mong the Pe

The 12 Baros

and Knight

meet in the I fence, next

Guard Room.

to his plac

Sir F. Head,

Sir E. Warde.

Sis Ste. Lennard.

Sir W. Recesby.

Sir Cl. Fisher.

Sir 7. Cope.

n, K^{t.}

and Queen, the Canopy at bbey, to receive Queen's Body Chariot.

ıle.

Proceeding before the Body,

And

Garter,

Atthe Abby door The 2 Gentlemen U shers arete take Carethe 2 Ladies he helpt out of the Chariot, and led to their places among the Bed-chamber Women.

Gentleman-Usher,

Garter King of Arms,

Gentleman-Ulher.

Earl of Pembroke, Lord Privy Seal,

The Chief Mourner, 7 Duke of Leeds, Dutchess of Sommerset, Lord President of His Maiesty's Council. [fupported by two Noblemen,] jesty's Council.

Dutchess of St. Albans, Her Train born Dutchess of Southampton.

Assisted by the Queen's Vice-Chamberlain, Mr. Sayres.

Eighteen Assistants to the Chief Mourner, viz.

To meet in the Privy Lodgings on the Queen's The Dutchels of Devonshire, Countess of Bridgwater, Countess Dowager of Winchelsea, Countels Dowager of Fhannet, Countess of Sandwich, Countels Dowager of Radnor Countels of Monmouth, Lady Howard of Effingham, Baronels Weston Countels of Arran. The Dutchess of Leeds, Countels of Oxford, Countels Dowager of Northampton, Countels of Carnarvon, Countess of Sunderland, Countels of Macclesfield. Countess of Dorchester, Lady Eliz. Crommell Baroness Crommell. Lady Rockingham.

Two Gentlemen-Ushers. Six Ladies of the Bed-chamber. Six Maids of Honour. Six Bed-chamber Women.

To meet in the ? Guard-Room.

Tickets for Places

within the Collegiate Church at

W stminster from the Duke of Norfeine, are to take Notice, that no

Person can be let in after Twelv. a

Clock but thole

who go in the

The Land of Pensioners. Yeoman of the Guard.

When the Body is placed in the Manfolcum the Chief-Mourner is to be seated in an Arm'd-Chair at the Head of the Body.

The Supporters to the Train on two Stools with low backs, a little behind her. The Ladies of the Bed-Chamber within the Manseleum, three on each side of the Body. The Assistants to sit within the first Rail without the Mansoleum.

The Queen's Lord-Ghamberlain to have a black Velvet Stool to fit near the For

of the Mausoleum.

The Band of Pensioners are to go in Order single on each side the outward Rail; and then two and two into the South life leading to Henry the Seventh's Chapel, and fland there on each fide, and when the following Proceeding goes to the Interment, then the Pensioners are to follow to the Chapel Door, but no further.

The Ycomen of the Guard are to stay on each side the Organ Quire, from the Quire Door up to the Rail.

Proceedings to the Interrment after the Sermon.

The Queen's State.

The Queen's Master of the Horse.

The Queen's Lord Chamberlain

The Church of Westminster, and both Choirs.

The 3 Supporters of the Pall.

The Body.

The 3 Supporters of the Pail Supporter to the Chief Mourta

New, All Perfons Supporter to the Chief Mourner, that shall have Supporter

The Chief Mourner.

Supporter to the Train.

Vice Chamberlain.

Ladies Assistants.

Q.

Ladies of the Bed-Chamber.

Maids of Honour.

Bed-Chamber Women

Gentlemen Pensioners to the Some Yeomen of the Guard to

gr. w 111 who we thatupo they we Accoun of eithe that on to M ff Guns to of Cap: the day irefh na the bad had of of the with St Yesterd quake, down fo Turin, parts ar by the 6 but that of 21 V Marfa!ia carried

TH:

· Wee

his Gall thought ning of the first the last '

concern

V.n.ce

granted French This is fered in will do Milen have W te in 1 Caza!; will be ro!, the Dragoo:

them; while,

fart a (F. 2722 to this House the fince h Daligns

Fire h

Afil