

consisted mostly of new raised Men; and that the Grand Visier did decline going to Command in that Expedition. The Marquis d'Esté is arrived here with the Character of Envoy from the present Duke of Modena, and its said he is charged with a Commission to Negotiate about a Marriage between the said Duke and the Princess Dowager of Parma, the Empresses Sister. The Count de Staremberg, President of the Council of War, and Governor of this City when it was last Besieged, had the misfortune some days ago to fall from his Horse and to break his Leg, and he is very dangerously ill.

Frankfort, March 27. The Margrave of Barceith, who Commands the Confederate Forces on the Rhine in the absence of Prince Lewis of Baden, and has at present his Residence at Hailbron, has given out Orders to the Officers to have their Companies compleat, and all things in a readiness to take the Field in May. The French have begun to raise the Poll Tax in Alsace, which is very uneasie to the People who are extremely impoverished by the War.

Falmouth, March 25. On the 23th instant came into Mountsbay two Dutch Men of War, with about 20 sail of Merchant Ships from Ireland, (but last from Milford,) and two Ships from Cadix, and two more from the West Indies; which 4 Ships last mentioned joynd the rest off the Lizard.

Plymouth, March 26. Yesterday in the Evening passed by this Port the Convoy bound to the Streights, which sailed from Spithead the day before, having a very fair Wind. This day came in a Suedish Ship, called the Susanna, bound to the Westward.

Portsmouth, March 29. The Charles Galley came this day to St. Helens, having taken the 27th instant off Dungenesse a French Snaw of 2 Guns, 2 Pattereroes, and 17 Men, belonging to Dumkirke, and sent her to Rye.

Kenington, March 30. The Gentlemen and Magistrates of the Places hereafter named have made humble Addresses to His Majesty, in which they Condole the Death of our late Gracious Queen of Blessed Memory; and assure His Majesty that as they offer up their Prayers to Almighty God for the preservation of His Royal Person, so they will as becomes most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, constantly stand by His Majesty with their Lives and Fortunes, and to the utmost of their Power defend and support His Majesty's Government against the open Violence, and secret Machinations of all his Enemies whatsoever; to wit,

The High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and both the Grand Juries at the late Assizes held for the County of Suffolk; delivered by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, and all the Members of Parliament serving for the same, that are now in Town.

The High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, together with divers other Gentlemen of the County of Monmouth; delivered by John Arnold Esq;

The Inhabitants of the Borough of Hinden in the County of Wilts; delivered by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fitzharding, one of their Representatives in Parliament.

The Bayliff and Burgeses of the Borough of Buckingham; delivered by Sir Richard Temple Bar. and Alexander Denton Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

All which Addresses His Majesty accepted very Graciously.

The Letters from Holland of Tuesday last are not yet come in.

Advertisements.

†. A Sermon Preached at the Funeral of Her late Majesty Queen Mary of ever Blessed Memory in the Abby Church in Westminster, on the 5th of March last. By his Grace Thomas Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Printed for Ric. Chiswell at the Rose and Crown in St. Pauls Church-yard.

†† The Necessity of a present Repentance. In a Sermon Preached before the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, at Guildhall Ch. p. 1. March the 10th last, by William Bramston, Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majesty. Printed for William Kibblewhite at the Swan in St. Pauls Church-yard.

††† A Sermon Preached at the Funerall of the Reverend John Scot, D. D. late Rector of St. Giles in the Fields, March the 5th last. By Z. Latham, D. D. Rector of St. Botolph Bishopsgate, London. Printed for Walter Kettilby at the Bishop's Head in St. Pauls Church-yard.

* * The Effigies of her late Majesty of Blessed Memory is curiously done to the Life in Wax, and Drest in Coronation Robes, at Mr. Goldsmiths in Green-Court in the Old Jury, London.

* * The Mystery of Curing Comprehensively; Explained and Proved, Argumentatively and Practically, in three Parts. Approved the most useful, Commodious, and Comprehensive Expedient, against surprising painful Diseases; and secret decays of human Nature. By Everard Maynawaringe, M. D. near the Kings-gate in Grays-Inn Lane. The 2d Impression, Revised and Augmented. Sold by D. Brown without Temple Bar, and J. Everingham in Ludgate Street.

L Off between the 3 Nuns in Aldermanbury, and the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, 29 Guineas in a Bag, together with the Pocket. Whoever brings them to Mrs. Love at Vinners-Hall in Thames Street, shall have 5 l. Reward.

Tide Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against John Snaibone, Woodmonger, intend to meet at the Irish Chamber in Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 3d of April, at 3 after Noon, to prove Debts; And the Creditors are forthwith to pay the Contribution Money to the Treasurer, (who attends every Noon at Mr. Thomas Symons Office at the Rising Sun, Cornhill,) lest they should be excluded.

James Row, tall and well-set, ruddy Complexion, wears a Perriwig, a Soldier in Col. Brewers Regiment, is escaped from Tooley's the Martial, in Holborn. Whoever secures him, and gives Notice thereof to Mr. Moyers in Freemens Court near the Exchange in Cornhill, shall have 10 l. Reward.

Taken away the 24th inst by 6 Highwaymen near Tanam Court, from John Hout, Cornchandler, in Peters-street, Westminster, a black brown Gelding, near 15 hands, has a brown Mule, a thorn Mare, cut tail newly docket, his hind Feet white, roan all, with a Hogskin Saddle laid, with silver twist, and birch'd with silver. Whoever gives notice of him to the Owner store'd, shall have 40 s. Reward and reasonable Charges.

Birmingham Stage-Couch beginning the 11th instant, goes from the Black Bull Inn in Holborn every Thursday morning, to the Swan Inn in Birmingham; And every Tuesday morning from the Black Swan in Birmingham, to the Black Bull in Holborn, in Two Days, setting out from both Places exactly at 4 in the Morning all the Summer season, and every Passenger to pay their Money at Entrance.

Stray'd or Stolen out of the Ground of Mr. Rob. Syme of Walthamstow in Essex, the 5th inst, a brown bay Mare, above 13 hands, with bar and slip, small Head, Neck long and small, brisk back round in the Flank and Buttock, the near foot before, and the off foot behind mark with white. Whoever gives notice of her to the said Mr. Syme, or to Mr. Tuptart at the Golden Lion in Lombard Street, shall have 10 s. Reward.