RULES PUBLICATION ACT, 1893.

In conformity with the provisions of the Statute 56 and 57 Victoria, cap. 66, notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State for India in Council proposes, with the advice and assistance of the Civil Service Commissioners, at the expiration of forty days from the date of this Gazette, to make an alteration as shown below in the Regulations for the examination of candidates for the Indian Civil Service, under section 97 of the Statute 5 and 6 George V, cap. 61.

For the first part of Regulation 2, which at present stands as follows, viz. :—

“ 2. No person will be deemed qualified who shall not satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners:—

(1) (a) That save as hereinafter provided he is a British subject.

(b) That if he (being a British subject) or his father or his mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance then at the time of his birth his father was a British subject and that such father still is or continued to be till his death a British subject.”

It is proposed to substitute the following, that is to say:—

“ 2. No person will be deemed qualified who shall not satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners:—

(1) (a) That save as hereinafter provided he is a British subject.

(b) That if he (being a British subject), or his father or his mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance then at the time of his birth his father was a British subject or the subject of any State in India, and that such father still is or continued to be until his death a British subject or the subject of such State in India.”

It is intended that the new Regulations shall apply to candidates at the open competitive examinations of 1919 and subsequent years.

Copies of the foregoing new regulation may be obtained from the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office, London, S.W.
