Danzicke, April 12.

THE Letters from Warsaw of the 5th instant inform us, That the King of Poland was very well recovered of his late Indisposition; That the Senators had met several times to consider what is fit to be done in the present juncture of Affairs; and had resolved to summon all the Gentry to appear in the Field on Horseback for the defence of the Kingdom; which resolution the King had approved of, but he had not yet caused the necessary Orders to be issued, for calling the Arriurban together. The Tartars, who conducted the last great Convoy to Caminnic, and afterwards made a Ravage on the Borders of Poland, are all gone home again, to defend their own Country against the Moscovites, who are making preparations to fall upon them with a very numerous Army.

Vienna, April 16. General Veterani will return in few days to Transilvania, with Orders to draw together the Imperial Troops that are quartered in those parts; who, 'tis said, are to be at their Rendezvous by the middle of the next month; The Forces which are to compose the Emperor's main Army are to assemble between Buda and Essecke; and General Heusler, and the Count de Staremberg, will be going for Hungary some time the next week. The Count de Techerin, the Emperors Ambassador in Poland, is recalled home.

Hailbron, April 19. The Imperial Forces who are to act on the Upper Rhine this Summer, under the Command of Prince Lewis of Baden, are to have their General Rendezvous near this City; and several Regiments of Horse are already come into this Neighbourhood, where they are quartered in the Villages. In the mean time they continue to work with great diligence on the Fortifications of this City, which will now be finished in a short time. Some French Regiments have been encamped near Neustadt, and from thence are marched towards Philipsburgh.

Berlin, April 19. The Baron de Heyde is on his departure from hence to Command the Brandenburgh Forces, who have had their Winter-quarters in the Diocess of Cologne; and Lieutenant General Brandt is going to Hungary to Command those Troops of his Electoral Highness which are in the Service of the Emperor.

Francfort, April 20. Two days ago arrived here Prince Charles of Lorraine, Son of the Prince de Vaudemont, in his way towards Hungary, where he designs to make the next Campaign; A Regiment of Horse, and another of Foot, of the Prince of Hesse Darmstadt, who are quartered in the Country hereabouts, have received Orders to march to Hungary; and 'tis said they will be followed by some other Regiments now in the pay of the Elector Palatin. The Imperial forces in these parts are preparing for their march; and we are told that they are to be at their Rendezvous by the middle of the next month. The Mareschal de Lorge is expected at Strasbourg in 10 days or a Fortnight; and the French Troops, which have Wintered in Burgundy, begin to move towards Alsace. Prince Lewis of Baden is shortly expected at Hailbron; where the Margrave of Bareith resides at present, to Command in his absence the Confederate Forces quartered near the Rhine.

Cologne, April 22. The Elector Palatin's Regiment of Horse Guards is ordered to march towards the Upper Rhine; from whence is expected a Bavarian Regiment of Cavalry, which is to serve this next Campaign in Flanders. The States of Bergues and Juliers are to meet at Dusel-dorpt to morrow. The Brandenburgh Forces that have Wintered in this Diocess will leave their Quarters in few days, and 'tis thought they will take their march towards the Meuse.
