

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 23. to Monday May 27. 1695.

Turin, May 16.

OUR Forces are still in their Quarters, except those that are employed in Guarding the New Line about Cazal. The Duke of Savoy is returned hither; and the Marquis de Leganes gone back to Milan. The French Troops do not yet begin to move on our Frontiers.

Vienna, May 18. The Emperors Forces in Hungary, are on their march to the place appointed for their Rendezvous near Buda, where they are all to be by the end of this month. General Veterani assembles the Imperial Troops on the Frontiers of Transylvania to give the Enemy a Diversion. They write from the Frontiers, that a Party of 80 Turks belonging to the Garison of Sabatx appeared the first Instant near Peter Waradin, and carried away some of the Country People; upon notice whereof, a Detachment of 100 Hussars was sent from Peter Waradin, but they did not meet the Enemy. They use great diligence to finish the Fortifications of that place, and to demolish all the Works that were made the last year while the Turkish Army was Encamped there.

Frankfort, May 26. The Confederate Forces draw together near Hailbron, where the Forces of Suebia and Franconia are already arrived with some other Troops. Prince Lewis of Baden continues at Gunsburg, but is expected in the Army about the beginning of the next month. The French are not yet together in any considerable Body; 'Tis still said that their Rendezvous is to be near Neustadt.

Paris, May 27. The French King went the 25th to Marli, where he will pass some time. The Mareschal de Lorge set out the same day for Germany, to Command together with the Mareschal de Choiseul the French Army on the Rhine. The Mareschal de Villeroi is gone for Flanders, where the Duke of Chartres is to Command the Horse under him, and the Prince of Comi the Foot; but they are both still here, and have yet set no time for their departure. The General Assembly of the Clergy began the 25th at St. Germain in the usual manner. They write from Rouen of the 25th, that they are very busy all along the Coasts, to provide for their security against any attempt from the Enemy, and more particularly at Havre de Grace, Harsleur, Quillebeuf, and other places which lye most exposed; the Inhabitants there having great apprehensions of their being Bombarded. They have the same fears on the Coasts of Provence, and use the same precautions for their Defence. They write from Pignerol of the 18th, that the Allies had finished their Line about Cazal, and that the place was very closely Block'd up. All the Letters from Catalonia say, that the French Army on that side is very much weakened by the Losses they have suffered, and will need a great reinforcement to put them upon the same foot they were the last Year.

Brussels, May 29. The Forces of the Allies which drew together at Sellick continue still in that Camp, where two Bavarian Regiments of Cuirassiers, who have had their Winter Quarters in Guelderland, are expected to morrow or the day following. The English Forces assemble between Ghent and Deynse, under the Command of the Prince de Vaudemont. We hear that the Mareschal de Villeroi is returned from the French Court, and that he arrived the 26th Instant at Valenciennes; The Army he is to Command, has Orders to draw together near Courtray. The Mareschal de Boufflers came the 25th to Mabeuge, and went from thence towards Namur, being to Command a separate Army on the Meuse. They write from Tournay, that the French, since their making of the new Line reaching from Courtray to Avelghem between the two Rivers the Lys and the Schelde, have resolved to Demolish the old Line between Menin and Pons Esperier. The Count de Montal is forming a Flying Camp near Dunkirk.

Hague, May 31. The King went from hence yesterday to Zwylstein, and this Night His Majesty will be at Loos; On Saturday His Majesty intends to go to Breda, and to be the next day, or on Monday, with the Army near Ghent. Sir George Rooke left this place yesterday, in order to Embark for England. Lieutenant Admiral Allemonde will sail in 7 or 8 days with the Dutch Men of War that are to join the English Fleet in the Channel. The Spanish Envoy is returned from Zealand, where the Forces designed to Catalonia were ship'd on Friday last; but they were not gone to Sea yesterday, staying for a fair Wind. The Letters from Cadix of the 2d of this month tell us, That the Fleet under the Command of Admiral Russel lay ready to sail with the first opportunity of Weather; And the Letters from Madrid of the 12th say, an Express was come in just as the