At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of August, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned; that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 18th day of July,

1918, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘ the said Benefice ’) of Easton Grey, in the County of Wilts, and in the Diocese of Bristol:

“ Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Easton Grey is vested for an estate in fee simple, in possession, free from incumbrances, in Frederick John Press, of Number 28, Broad Street, Bristol, Esquire:

“ And whereas the said Frederick John Press is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Easton Grey, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend George, now Bishop of Bristol, and his Successors in the same Bishopric:

“ And whereas the said George, Bishop of Bristol, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said George, Bishop of Bristol, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“ And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Easton Grey, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson, so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Easton Grey:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederick John Press (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Bristol, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Easton Grey, now vested in him, the said Frederick John Press, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said George, Bishop of Bristol, and his Successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said George, Bishop of Bristol, and his Successors in the same Bishopric for ever.
