ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

THE JUTE GOODS (PRICES) No. 3 ORDER, 1918.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, the Army Council hereby order as follows:—

1. No person shall sell for use within the United Kingdom any yarns or goods of any description having been produced by him wholly from Jute at prices exceeding the prices set out in the Schedule hereto annexed, or such other prices as in any particular case may be allowed by or on behalf of the Director of Raw Materials.

2. No person shall sell for use within the United Kingdom any yarns or goods of the description aforesaid not having been produced by him at prices exceeding more than 5 per cent. the prices set out in the Schedule hereto annexed or such other prices as in any particular case may be allowed by or on behalf of the Director of Raw Materials; provided, that on any sale by any such person of any yarns or goods of the description aforesaid not exceeding £100 in value the selling price may exceed by 10 per cent., and no more, the producers' sale prices thereof as determined in accordance with Clause 1 of this Order; and provided further that nothing contained in this Clause shall be deemed to refer to any sale by any such person of any yarns or goods of the description aforesaid not exceeding £25 in value.

3. No person shall in pursuance of any contract entered into on or after the 6th day of January, 1918, make or take delivery of any yarns or goods of any description produced wholly from Jute otherwise than upon the terms that the price provided by any such contract for any goods remaining undelivered at the date hereof shall be varied in accordance with the
