From Monday June 17. to Thursday June 20. 1695.

Cadiz, May 16. N. S.

ON the 9th instant, Admiral Russell failed with the Fleet out of this Bay, and came to an Anchor off Ros in sight of this place, where he continued till the 10th in the afternoon; He passed Malaga the 13th, and has ever since had a fair Wind. The Galeons designed for the West Indies are come down to the Bay, and are making in Goods; and the Man of War that are to go out with them, are fitting with all Expedition.

Malaga, May 17. Admiral Russell with the whole Fleet passed by this place the 13th, with a fresh Westerly Wind. Captain Beaumont, Commander of the Canterbury, was sent in with Orders to Captain Pickard, and the Men of War in this Road, to follow the Fleet; which they did immediately. Captain Rosas, in the Romney, is still here with several Vessels under his Convoy, who are taking in a thousand Butts of Wine for the use of the Fleet, and will be ready to sail in 2 or 3 days. The Catalans are all putting themselves in Arms to joyn with the Spanish Forces in order to drive the French out of their Country. We have advice from Ciuta, That 500 Spaniards of that Garrison made the last week a Salley upon the Moors, and beat them out of their Trenches, killing a great number of their Men, and taking some Prisoners; They filled up with Earth the first Trench next the Town, and had about 40 Men killed and wounded in this Action: Fresh Supplies of Mingo over daily to reinforce the Garrison, and we expect to hear very quickly that they have made a general Salley upon the Moors, who are very much discouraged by the Losses they have sustained, and the little progress they have hitherto made in the Siege.

Madrid, May 25. By an Express from Alicant, which arrived here yesterday, we have Letters of the 18th, which advise, That the Fleet commanded by Admiral Russell was then before that Port; and that Rear Admiral Newille was gone with 10 Men of War to Final, to Convey the Spanish Troops from thence to Barcelona. This Court is still at Aranjuez. 'Tis said the Galeons will Sail from Cadiz the next month.

Legborne, June 6. We are informed by a Vessel which arrived here two days ago from Thoulon, That they had received Advice by their Scouts, of Admiral Russell's arrival at Barcelona, and hourly feared his appearing on the Coast of Provence, where they have been at a very great expence in making new Fortifications; and particularly at Ioulon and Majales. Several Turkish Corsairs having lately infested this Coast, the Great Duke of Tuscany has ordered 3 Gallies to be immediately sent out in hopes of meeting with some of them, and they are now on their departure under the Command of Signior Guidi.

Turin, June 9. The Troops, we told you in our last were ordered to the Camp before Casal, are on their march thither, and other preparations are making for the Siege of that place. 'Tis said, That the Trenches will be opened in 4 or 5 days.

Venice, June 11. They are now preparing here a greater Convoy for our Fleet in the Levant, than has yet gone thither at any one time, which may be ready by the beginning of the next month; There are 800 Men at the Leib, who are to Embark on these Ships, and more are daily expected from the places where they have been raised. The last Letters from Napoli di Romania give an account, That a Body of the Enemies Troops had appeared near the isthmus of Cerinth, having with them several pieces of Cannon, and 'twas thought they would endeavour to make an Incurtion into the Mare; to prevent which, the Captain General had sent a strong Detachment of the Venetian Forces to maintain that Pass. They write from Dalmatia, That the Governor of Ciclut understanding that 500 Turks were come into the Neighbourhood of that place to get Intelligence, he sent out a strong Party, who had a sharp dispute with them, killed several, and put the rest to flight.

Vienna, June 11. The Count de Heydelsheim went hence yesterday to the Imperial Army in Hungary, where he is to serve this Campaign as General of the Horse. General Caprara stays till the arrival of the Elector of Saxony, who is expected here about the 15th of this month. We have Advice from the Frontiers, That the Radziens commanded by Colonel Antonio, had passed the Danube, and fallen upon a Party of Turks that were marching with the Basha of Silestria towards Belgrade, of whom divers were killed, and the Basha obliged to retire towards Semendria. Yesterday being the Emperor's Birth Day, when he entered into the 56th year of his Age, he received the usual Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Quality. His Imperial Majesty has received a Letter from the Czar of Moscovy, giving an account, That he was marching against the Tartars with a numerous Army.

Frazzfort, June 19. The Army of the Allies is still encamped near Steppach, where Prince Lewis expects the rest of the Forces that are on their march to joyn him. The French Army lies between Bruchsal and Wistock, and a strong Party of them in the last of these places. Several Rencontres have happened between the Parties of the two Armies, Our Hussars have taken divers Prisoners, but some of them going too near the French Camp, were attacked by a Party sent from thence, and several of them killed.

Cologne, June 21. The Forces of Munster make great marches in order to joyn the Confederate Army on the Upper Rhine.

Hamburg, July 17. Prince Christian, Second Son to the King of Denmark, came the last week to Braukhusen, where the Duke of Zell has at present his Residence; And from thence continued his Journey towards Flanders. The Forces of Hanover, Zell, and Wolfenbuttel, designed to joyn the Prince of Baden on the Rhine, began their march thither the 5th instant, consisting in 3000 men. They write from Stockholme, That the King of Sweden had been to view his Troops in the several parts of the Kingdom, and was shortly expected back at Stockholme. Letters from Dantzicke of the 10th instant say, That a Frigate of 50 Guns, called the Mars, which was built there, on account and for the service of the French, is going out run aground, where she was in great danger to be lost.

Paris, June 20. They write from Thoulon of the 12th instant, That Admiral Russell continued near the Isles of Hieres with a Fleet of 80 sail, having sent a Squadron to Final; That an English Frigate came the same day these Letters were written almost within Cannon Shot of the Entrance into the Port, and after having staid there some time to observe the posture we were in, returned to the Fleet; And by an Express from the Mareschal de Tourville, we have an account, That the whole Fleet appeared the 14th before Thoulon, which occasioned a great Alarm; And to oppose any attempt the Enemy might make there, 3000 Foot and 400 Horse were posted near the Sea side; The 24 Gallies that were sent thither in great hast from Marseilles (not having above half their Men on Board) were placed so as that they might be most serviceable for the security of the Port, the Entrance whereof was likewise secured with great Chains and Booms; The Streets were unpaved, and the Tops of Houses uncovered, and they had planted on Batteries 300 pieces of Cannon and 34 Mortars: The like Precautions have been used at Marseilles. Some Letters say, that 18 Spanish Gallies had joyned Admiral Russell. The Letters from Pignerol of the 12th advise, That the Allies had finished their Batteries against Casal, from which they would begin to fire that day, and that the Trenches would be opened the 15th. We have advice from Perpignan, That the Duke of Vendosme was arrived there, and was going to Command the Army in Catalonia. 'Tis said, that besides the ten Millions given by the Clergy, The French King intends to demand of them a further Sum of Money by way of Loan.

Russell,

Brussels, June 22. The Elector of Bavaria is encamp'd at Kirkboven within two Leagues of the Enemies Lines between the Lys and the Scheldæ. Yesterday morning his Electoral Highness sent Major General Fagel with a Detachment of 2500 Foot and 100 Dragoons, to attack 400 French Foot and 60 Horse, who were posted near a Mill, from whence a view may be taken of their Lines; which he performed, and beat the Enemy from that Post; We lost about 20 Men, and the French as many. The Earl of Atkone marched the 20th from Louvain to join the Forces of Brandenburg and Liege, who encamp'd yesterday at Hennau near the River Misbaigne. On Sunday last a Party of 300 French came into our Neighbourhood, and a Party of our Forces being sent against them, they beat the Enemy, and killed and wounded about 40 of them; and among others, a Lieutenant Colonel, a Major, and two other Officers, were dangerously wounded.

From His Majesty's Camp at Becceler, June 23. N. S. We have an account from our Forces before Kenoque, that the Enemy have attempted 4 several times to regain the Post our Men took from them upon their first coming before the place, and were as often beaten off with considerable loss. They are now making a new Line within their former, which cuts off Kenoque, in case we should open a passage that way; The Enemy having opened their Sluicethere, has been some hindrance to our Works, which is the reason that no farther progress has been yet made. The Army Commanded by the Elector of Bavaria continues near Kirkboven, and have provided themselves with Falcines for attacking the Enemies Lines, in case it should be thought advisable. The Marschal de Villeroy, and the Marschal de Boufflers, continue in the same Camp mentioned in our last. Two Persons were lately seized in our Camp, who were Tryed yesterday at a Court Martial, and Condemned for Spies. Great quantities of Ammunition, Cannon, and Mortars, are Shipping at Maeffricht to be ready for any occasion.

Hague, June 24. N. S. The Elector and Electores of Palatine arrived yesterday at Rotterdam, and are expected here in a day or two, having with them a Train of about 100 Persons. The Stars General have appointed a publick Fast to be observed in these Provinces on the 6th of July.

Edinburg, June 13. The Parliament met the 10th, and the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to enquire into the Slaughter of the Glencoe Men presented, by their President, certain private Articles, Treated and Agreed in July 1691. between the Earl of Brodalbine and Major General Buchan, with several of the Highland Clans then in Rebellion, as also the Depositions of the Lord of Glencarie and Colonel Hill, containing Informations of High Treason against the Earl of Brodalbine, touching the said Articles, which being Read, after some Debate, it was put to the Vote, whether they should now proceed upon this Information of High Treason against the said Earl, and it was carried in the Affirmative, and an Order given to the King's Advocate to raise Summons of Treason against the Earl before the Parliament; And it was ordered that the Earl of Brodalbine be committed Prisoner to the Castle of Edinburgh, in order to his Tryal. An Address from the Ministers of the Synods; And the Draught of an Act for Encouraging the Exportation of Vitrual were Read, and both ordered to lie upon the Table; After which the Parliament adjourned till the 12th, when they had before them the Draught of an Act about Church Discipline, and referred it back to the Committee. The Earl of Brodalbine had leave granted him to employ what Advocates he pleases to answer his Indictment. Then they Read the Draught of an Act for a General Poll. And an Act was brought in and Read for setting a Trade in the Western Plantations, after which the Parliament was adjourned till to morrow.

Dublin, June 14. His Majesty's Ship the Dolphin took on Friday last off Carrickfergus a French Privateer, call'd the Katherine Dogger of Brest, carrying 6 Guns and 60 Men, and has brought her into Carrickfergus Lough.

Yarmouth, June 17. Captain Stephens Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Soleway, brought into our Road on Friday last a French Privateer of 4 Guns and 40 Men, which he took the same day. This day passed by here a Fleet of Merchant-Ships from Hull, being bound to Mol-Jan under Convoy of two Dutch Men of War.

Dover, June 17. The Assistance and the Saphire, cruising on this coast gave chase to a small French Privateer and took her; she carries 4 Guns and 4 Parcerross, and came lately from Bologne.

Plymouth, June 16. On the 12th instant came in the Mary Transport Ship with 230 Seamen (that have been Prisoners) from St. Mohn. There is just now in sight of this place a Flag with several Men of War coming from the Eastward, which is believed are His Majesty's Ships Commanded by the Marquis of Carmarthen.

Postsmouth, June 18. Lieutenant Admiral Allemonde arrived the 16th at Spithhead with the Dutch Men of War, Bomb Vessels, &c. from Holland; and joined my Lord Berkeley.

Whitehall, June 17. The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have given a Gold Medal and Chain to Mr. Peter Jolliffe of Poole, Master of the Sea Adventure Hoy, of about 25 Tuns, for his good Service, and particularly in retaking some time since a Ketch of Weymouth from a French Privateer, and Chasing the said Privateer on Shore near Lulworth in the Isle of Purbecke, where she was broken in pieces. The Lords Commissioners, for the further Encouragement of William Thompson of Poole, have likewise given him the Sloop which he took lately from the French.

Westminster, June 18. The Parliament met this day, and was, by Commission, again Prorogued to the 30th of July next.
