

measures as may be so specified shall be adopted in the case of any such ships;

(f) that such records of the observance of any of the requirements of the directions shall be kept, and such certificates thereof shall be given, as may be so specified.

If any ship with respect to which any such directions have been given puts to sea from any port in the United Kingdom without complying with the directions, the owner or master of the ship shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations, and if the ship is subsequently found at any port of, or in the territorial waters adjacent to, the United Kingdom, the ship may be seized and detained; and if whilst any such ship is at sea there is a failure to comply with any requirements of the directions which are to be observed whilst at sea, the master of the ship or other responsible officer shall be guilty of a like offence."

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Military Service (Conventions with Allied States) Act, 1917, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council, signifying that a convention or agreement has been made with a country allied to or otherwise acting in naval or military co-operation with His Majesty in the present war (hereinafter referred to as an allied country) which imposes a mutual liability to military service on British subjects in that country and subjects of that country in the United Kingdom, direct that the said Act shall have effect with respect to that allied country and the subjects of that allied country, but that no such Order in Council shall be made unless the following conditions are fulfilled, that is to say:—

(a) Unless the convention or agreement secures to His Majesty's Ambassador or other public Minister in the allied country power to grant to British subjects in that country exemption from military service;

(b) Unless the convention or agreement contains provisions to the effect that British subjects in the allied country and subjects of the allied country in the United Kingdom shall before being liable to military service have an opportunity if they make an application for the purpose of returning to the United Kingdom or the allied country as the case may be;

and it is further provided that no such Order in Council shall be made until the expiration of thirty days from the date on which the convention or agreement is laid before Parliament:

And whereas an agreement dated the day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, has been concluded between His Majesty's Government and the Government of His Majesty the King of the Hellenes respecting the liability to military service of British subjects in Greece and Greek subjects in Great Britain or, in the event of the Military Service Acts, 1916 to 1918, being extended to Ireland, in the United Kingdom:

And whereas a period of thirty days from the date on which the said agreement was laid before Parliament has elapsed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to signify, and it is hereby signified, that such an agreement as is mentioned in the said Act has been made with Greece, and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the like advice, to direct, and it is hereby directed, that the said Act shall have effect with respect to Greece and Greek subjects.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of September, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865," it is enacted (among other things) that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act:

And whereas by the same Act it is also enacted that in relation to any Dockyard Port, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to make regulations for all or any of the purposes therein particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary with a view to the proper protection of His Majesty's vessels, dockyards, or property, or to the requirements of His Majesty's Naval Service:

And whereas in pursuance of the said Act, by Order in Council dated the 29th day of February, 1868, certain regulations were made with reference to the Dockyard Port of Deptford:

And whereas it appears expedient to repeal the said Order in Council and to substitute therefor this Order:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf, by the said Act or otherwise in Him vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect on the expiration of thirty days from its publication in the London Gazette.

2. On this Order taking effect the said Order of the 29th day of February, 1868, shall cease to operate.

3. The terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as in the said Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865.

4. No merchant or other private vessel shall be anchored, moored, or placed within the limits following, namely:—

Within sixty fathoms of the wharves of His Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford.
