Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of September, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 7th day of October, 1899, and made under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, it was (amongst other things) ordered that burials in the Parish of Marden, in the County of Hereford, should be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Marden, in the said County of Hereford, and also in the portion of the Churchyard situated to the west of a line drawn across it from North to South at the east wall of the Apse :

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under (amongst others) the Burial Act, 1853, as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the said Parish of Marden ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for reasons of public health, so much of the said Order in Council of the 7th day of October, 1899, as relates to burials in the Parish Church and the Churchyard of Marden aforesaid, should be varied so as to provide that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the said Churchyard as existing at that date. Provided that in any vault or walled grave now existing in the portion of the said Churchyard which was not closed for burials by the said Order in Council burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 8th day of November next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 8th day of November.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of October, 1918.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade :

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade :

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May, 1917, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited :

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars :

And whereas by the said Proclamation as subsequently amended it was provided inter alia that the exportation of goods marked "C" in the Schedule to such Proclamation should be prohibited to all destinations in European and Asiatic Russia, and in other foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean, except France and French Possessions, Italy and Italian Possessions and Portugal, and to all ports in any such foreign countries.

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect :—

That the Proclamation dated the 10th day of May, 1917, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following addition to the Schedule to the same :—

- (2) Personal effects accompanied by their owners.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Board of Trade,

London, S.W. 1.

THE FUEL WOOD ORDER, 1918, DATED 27TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1918, MADE BY THE BOARD OF TRADE UNDER REGULATIONS 2F/2G/2J AND 2JJ OF THE DEFENCE OF THE REALM REGULATIONS.

The Board of Trade, deeming it expedient to exercise the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations for the purpose of maintaining the supply of wood suitable to be used for fuel, hereby order as follows:—

1. In this Order the expression "Fuel wood" means the waste lop and top of felled timber exceeding 2 inches in diameter and any other timber unsuitable for conversion into sawn lumber or pitwood, and waste produced in the conversion of timber at a saw mill or factory.

The expressions "Local Authority," "Local Fuel and Lighting Committee" and "Local Fuel Overseer" have the same meanings as in the Household Fuel and Lighting Order, 1918, and the Household Fuel and Lighting (Scotland) Order, 1918.

2. Where standing timber is or has been felled the person responsible for the felling shall, except as provided in paragraph 23 hereof or unless otherwise permitted or directed in writing by the Controller of Timber Supplies cause all fuel wood as and when produced by such operation to be collected into stacks at roadside or at some place or places convenient for removal by mechanical or other transport.

A stack shall measure 16 ft. by 4 ft. by 2 ft. or 8 ft. by 4 ft. by 4 ft., and be closely packed.

3. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 23 hereof, every person who fells timber and every person converting such timber at a saw mill or factory shall hold all fuel wood produced at the disposal of the Board of Trade, and shall give notice thereof to the Divisional Officer of the Coal Mines Department of the Board of Trade for the district in which it is lying, and shall, if required, deliver it at roadside or other place of removal mentioned in paragraph 2, or at the saw mill or factory, as the case may be, to the order of such Officer. No such person shall offer fuel wood for sale or otherwise dispose of it before offering it to such Divisional Officer, who shall accept or refuse in writing any fuel wood or part thereof so offered to him within 28 days of the receipt of the offer. The titles and addresses of the Officers and particulars of their districts appear in the Schedule hereto.

4. No person shall sell fuel wood by retail without a licence from a Local Authority, except as provided in paragraph 23 hereof.

5. A licence to sell fuel wood by retail shall be in a form approved by the Board of Trade, and may define an area within the district of the Local Authority issuing the licence within which the holder thereof may sell fuel wood, and may, with the consent of any other Local Authority, authorize the holder to sell within the district of such other Local Authority or within any part thereof as may be defined.

6. A licensed retailer shall not sell more than 2 tons of fuel wood to any person for consumption on any premises to which the Household Fuel and Lighting Order, 1918, or the Household Fuel and Lighting (Scotland) Order, 1918, apply during any period of twelve calendar months, except with the consent in writing of the Local Fuel Overseer of the district within which such premises are situate. The said amount may be increased or decreased by notice issued by the Local Authority on behalf of and with the consent of the Controller of Coal Mines.

7. Where a person has offered fuel wood to a Divisional Officer under paragraph 3 hereof and it has been refused, he shall not sell or dispose of such wood, except as permitted by paragraph 23 hereof, to any person other than a licensed retailer unless he himself is a licensed retailer.

8. No person shall buy or acquire or attempt to buy or acquire for consumption more than the amount of fuel wood fixed by or in accordance with paragraph 6 hereof without the consent in writing of the Local Fuel Overseer.

9. A Local Fuel Overseer may, with the consent of the Controller of Coal Mines, require consumers within his district to take fuel wood in part satisfaction of the allowance of fuel granted to them under the provisions of the Household Fuel and Lighting Order, 1918, or the Household Fuel and Lighting (Scotland) Order, 1918, provided that he shall not require any consumer to take more than one-third part of his allowance in fuel wood, and for this purpose 2 tons or such larger amount as a Local Fuel Overseer, with the consent of the Controller of Coal Mines, may determine shall be deemed the equivalent of a ton of coal.

10. Any additional allowance of fuel granted under Clause 11 of the Household Fuel and Lighting Order, 1918, or under Clause 10 of the Household Fuel and Lighting (Scotland) Order, 1918, or any part thereof, may be made in fuel wood.

11. Where a consumer is required to take fuel wood in satisfaction of any part of his allowance or of an additional allowance of fuel the fuel wood so taken shall not affect the amount with which he is entitled to be supplied or which he is entitled to acquire under paragraphs 6 and 8 of this Order.

12. Where a Local Fuel Overseer has required a consumer to take fuel wood in satisfaction or part satisfaction of his fuel allowance a licensed retailer shall supply such a consumer with the amount which he is so required to take in priority to all other consumers not so required as aforesaid.

13. A Local Fuel Overseer may grant to any consumer within his district a certificate entitling that person to obtain an amount of fuel wood to be specified in such certificate in priority to all persons other than those mentioned in paragraphs 9, 10 and 12 hereof, and a licensed retailer shall supply such person accordingly.

14. The price at which fuel wood may be bought or sold at roadside or other place of removal referred to in paragraph 2 or at a portable or forest mill shall not exceed 15s. per stack for soft wood and 20s. per stack for hard wood, provided that the Controller of Timber Supplies may, by notice under his hand, vary such maximum prices from time to time either generally or for any particular district, or for any particular class or description of wood. Whether any fuel wood is soft wood or hard wood shall be determined according to the usual custom of the trade, and in case of dispute by the Controller of Timber Supplies.

15. A Local Authority which deals in fuel wood or which has granted licences to deal in fuel wood shall fix and give public notice of the maximum prices at which fuel wood or any description thereof may be bought or sold by retail within their district, but shall not have power to vary the maximum prices fixed under or in accordance with the last preceding paragraph. Prices so fixed shall allow for the cost of transport and delivery and for the sawing into short lengths to the extent to which such services are performed.

16. Subject to Clause 14 hereof no person shall buy or sell fuel wood by retail at a price exceeding the maximum price fixed in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this Order. Nor shall any person impose or attempt to impose any conditions on a sale or proposed sale of fuel wood under this Order.

17. A licensed retailer shall exhibit and keep exhibited in a conspicuous position at every place where he sells fuel wood a notice of the maximum prices in force for the time being or of any less prices at which he is willing to sell. A hawker licensed as a retailer shall exhibit such notice on the vehicle from which he sells fuel wood.

18. The Local Authority shall determine the method, whether by measure or weight, by which fuel wood shall be sold by retail within their district, and no person shall sell fuel wood by any method other than that so fixed.

19. Where fuel wood is delivered to the order of a Divisional Officer under the provisions of paragraph 3 the person engaged in felling the timber or the person engaged in converting such timber at a saw mill or factory shall, if he so desires, be entitled to hand the fuel wood and deliver it at such place as such Officer may direct, at a price to be agreed with such Officer.

20. A Local Authority may, on behalf of the Board of Trade, and is hereby authorized to, require all persons engaged in the sale of or dealing in fuel wood to make such returns and to supply such particulars relating to their business as the Local Authority may for the purpose of this Order require. A licensed retailer shall in particular keep a record of all sales of fuel wood made by him exceeding in value one shilling or such other value as may from time to time be determined by the Local Authority showing the customers' names and the dates and amounts of such sales, and such record shall at all times be open to inspection by the Local Authority or by any person authorized in that behalf by the Board of Trade.

21. A Local Authority shall in all matters relating to this Order act through the Local Fuel and Lighting Committee and Local Fuel Overseer.

22. The licensed retailers of fuel wood in any district may nominate or elect a member to be added to the Local Fuel and Lighting Committee of the Local Authority for such district, and Clause 21 of the Household Fuel and Lighting Order, 1918, and Clause 30 of the Household Fuel and Lighting (Scotland) Order, 1918, are hereby amended accordingly.

23. Nothing in this Order applies to fuel wood—

(a) sold on the ground by persons engaged in felling operations or in operating a portable or forest mill in quantities not exceeding 2 tons to any one consumer in any period of twelve calendar months at a price not exceeding the maximum fixed under paragraph 14;

(b) felled by an owner on his own land for his own use or for the use of his tenants and servants, unless it is the waste of timber felled for sale;

(c) collected or gleaned by persons for their own consumption in accordance with any custom or with the consent, express or implied, of the owner or occupier of the land;

(d) given to workmen according to the custom of the trade or as part of their wages;

(e) bought or sold for chemical purposes;

provided that any person to whom wood is sold under Clause (a) hereof shall bring it into account in calculating the amount which he is entitled to acquire under paragraphs 6 and 8 of this Order.

24. The Board of Trade may suspend the operation of this Order within the district of any Local Authority for such times and subject to such conditions (if any) as they may think fit. Notice of suspension shall be given by the Local Authority.

25. All contracts other than contracts with a Government Department or with a Naval or Military Authority for the purchase and sale of fuel wood existing at the date when this Order comes into operation are hereby abrogated.

26. Infringements of this Order are summary offences against the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

27. This Order comes into operation on the 1st October, 1918, and applies to Great Britain only.

28. This Order may be cited as THE FUEL WOOD ORDER, 1918.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal for gallantry in saving life at sea to Commander Walter Henry Calthrop Calthrop, R.N.

The account of the services in respect of which this decoration has been conferred is as follows:—

On the night of the 14th/15th April, 1918, a fire broke out on board the S.S. "Proton," an ammunition ship, at Port Said. Commander Calthrop, on being informed on the telephone that the ship was on fire, immediately proceeded to the scene. The ship had already been abandoned by her crew, and was ablaze in Nos. 1 and 2 holds. The forecabin was also alight, and it was impossible to get down to the fore well deck owing to the heat of the flames. Knowing that the "Proton" had 240 tons of ammunition on board, Commander Calthrop decided to endeavour to flood the ship, and for this purpose obtained assistance and went down into the engine-room and opened the sea inlet. He also tried to break the main sea valve cover, but was not successful in this. He accordingly sent for a gun-cotton charge for the purpose of sinking the ship, and warned all ships in the vicinity to get under weigh. He then returned to the "Proton," which was now blazing fiercely forward, the sides being red hot as far aft as the bridge, and the bridge screen all alight. He again boarded her with the first and second engineers and went below, trying to break the doors of the condenser with sledge hammers. After about five minutes this was found to be impossible, and they returned on deck. By this time a picket boat had arrived with the gun-cotton charge, and it was decided that the ship ought to be sunk as soon as possible. This operation was accordingly carried out.

Commander Calthrop displayed the utmost gallantry and disregard of his own personal safety in making protracted efforts, first to flood and then to sink the ship, whilst exposed to continual risk of an explosion of the ammunition on board. His efforts undoubtedly prevented serious loss of life.

The Secretary of the Admiralty announces that it has been decided, with the King's approval, that instead of the present pattern of White Undress Coat (with stand collar) Naval Officers may at their option wear a White Undress Coat with a step collar. Apart from the shape of the collar the pattern of the Coat will be the same as that of the White Undress Coat. It will be worn with a white linen collar (soft or stiff) and a black tie.

The present White Undress Coat will be called in future the White Tunic, and the term White Undress Coat will be used for the new pattern.
