PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Aliens Restriction Order His Majesty in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him by the Aliens Restriction Act, 1914, has been pleased to impose restrictions on aliens and to make various regulations for the carrying of those regulations into effect:

And whereas it is expedient further to extend the provisions of that Order in manner hereinafter appearing:—

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following paragraph shall be substituted for paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of Article 19 and for paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of Article 20c:—

"(b) he shall, if he is about to effect a change of residence, whether permanent or temporary, furnish to the registration officer of the registration district in which he is then resident particulars as to the date on which his residence is to be changed and as to his intended place of residence, and if the change of residence, whether permanent or temporary, involves a move from one registration district to another he shall also forthwith report to the registration officer of the registration district into which he moves his arrival in that district."

2. The following sub-section shall be inserted after sub-section (4) of Article 19 and after sub-section (2) of Article 20c:—

"A registration officer may, subject to the general or special instructions of a Secretary of State, exempt any alien resident in his district, so far as temporary changes of residence are concerned, from compliance with the provisions of this Article relating to the furnishing of particulars in case of an intended change of residence and the reporting of arrival on effecting a change of residence."

The sub-section so to be inserted as aforesaid shall be numbered (5) in Article 19 and (3) in Article 20c, and sub-section (5) of Article 19 and sub-section (3) of Article 20c shall be renumbered accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the 10th January, 1910, and known generally as the Civil Service (Consolidating) Order in Council, 1910, and hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Order," it is provided that, with certain provisions and exceptions, the qualifications of all such persons as may seek or be proposed for appointment to any situation or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments shall, before they are so appointed, be tested by or under the directions of the Civil Service Commissioners, and that no person (save as excepted thereby) shall be appointed to any such Establishment until a Certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners declaring that he has satisfied them, among other things, that he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties:

And whereas it is expedient that the said requirement should be modified with respect to officers, holding pensionable situations, and having been appointed with a certificate of qualification, who may be proposed for promotion or transfer to situations for which a further certificate of qualification is required:
